CLEVER SLEUTHS GATHER EVIDENCE FOR MRS. GRACE

Two Detectives Engaged to Find Alleged Third Person in Shooting Case.

GRACE HAS NOT TALKED OF WIFE'S TRIP HOME

Wounded Man Will Die in Three Weeks or Less, Believes Attending Physician. Bondsmen for Woman Are Confident She Will Be Here for Trial.

The Grace shooting mystery took a startling turn yesterday when it was learned that John W. Moore, leading counsel in the defense of Mrs. Daisy E. Grace, had engaged two of the shrewdest private detectives in the south to gather evidence to substantiate the charge that Grace was shot by a person other than his wife. The case has narrowed down to a keen battle of wits between the lawyers on both sides, and when the accused woman reaches Atlanta Sunday night new features will develop thick and fast.

"We have an array of evidence which will not only show that Mrs. Grace did not fire the shot into her husband's body, but will also produce witnesses which will give the case an entirely different aspect," said Attorney Moore Friday. "We have been too busily engaged securing the release of our client to work up this evidence, but now that she is free, we are going to leave no stone unturned to bring about her vindication. Mrs. Grace will be able to assist us to a greater extent, now that she is out on bail."

Examining House of Mystery.

Asked as to the employment of detectives by the defense, Attorney Moore smiled. "Where did you find that out?" he asked. When given the source of The Constitution's information he scowled and refused to affirm or deny the truth of the story. Along these lines the defense is working with the greatest secrecy. The house in Eleventh street where Grace was found has been placed under scrutiny. There has not been a minute during the day or night that the penetrating eye of a detective has not been focused on it. People in the neighborhood have called the attention of the local police to strange men loitering about the house, but when Chief Lanford's men reach the scene the prowlers disappear.

The latest developments in the case indicate that the "mysterious third person," first mentioned by Mrs. Grace, will be the strongest bit of evidence at the preliminary trial. Attorney Lamar Hill, one of the prosecution, stated that no steps were taken Friday to secure an indictment against Mrs. Grace.

"The case has taken no new turn, insofar as we are concerned," he replied. "We have done nothing and are now awaiting developments."

"Do you still adhere to the belief that Mrs. Grace will not return?" he was asked.

"When I said that I did not think Mrs. Grace would return I was merely expressing an opinion. However, from what I have gathered from the press dispatches it looks as though she will return."

Not Certain of Next Step.

The interviewer asked Mr. Hill what

ANOTHER WOMAN IN CASE, BELIEF IN PHILADELPHIA

Report That Mrs. Grace Had Declared She Would Let the World Know All About the Other Woman at Trial, Is Denied by Wife of Wounded Man.

By Britt Craig.

Philadelphia, Pa., March 22.—(Special.)—"There is another woman involved in the case, and if I am brought to trial the whole world will know all about her. I will tell the whole miserable story on the stand. If I am not brought to trial, I may tell all about the other woman when I return to Atlanta."

This statement from Mrs. Daisy Grace was published this morning in several New York newspapers. It sold rapidly on the streets of Philadelphia, and created a sensation. Mrs. Grace, when shown the printed interview, denied it in whole.

The New York papers describe the second woman in the case as being a petite blonde, and well known both in Philadelphia and Atlanta society.

Another Woman Theory.

Philadelphia detectives and newspaper men express their belief that there is another woman in the shooting. On the strength of this, many have offered to go to Atlanta and testify in Mrs. Grace's behalf. Sentiment here is exceptionally strong for the accused woman. Many of her local friends have endeavored to see her, braving the sleet and storm of Thursday to get to her house. None, however, was allowe dto enter the door on the orders of Mr. Branch.

Two Pinkerton detectives are shadowing Mrs. Grace through the streets of Philadelphia. It is reported that their instructions come from officials in Atlanta. They are working on twelve-hour shifts, and one remained on guard all Thursday night near Mrs. Ulrich's home, where Mrs. Grace was sleeping. When seen this morning by The Constitution's staff representative, they were astonished that they had been discovered. They would not tell for whom they were working.

"I believe Mrs. Grace will escape," said one. "It is reported that she has secured tickets to Italy and will leave as soon as possible."

Follow Mrs. Grace Everywhere.

They followed Mrs. Grace everywhere she went. A taxicab was at their command, and they broke speed laws and road regulations when their quarry rode on the elevated.

Mrs. Grace was up bright and early this morning. About noon she joined Mr. Branch on a shopping trip uptown and purchased a handsome spring hat. It becomes her perfectly.

She and her attorney have had much trouble in evading Philadelphia reporters. Everywhere she goes she is surrounded by them.

The leading Philadelphia papers will send staff men to Atlanta to cover her trial. Several New York reporters are in the city endeavoring to interview her, but so far haev been unsuccessful.

Mrs. Grace probably will leave Philadelphia Saturday morning. She is anxious to get back home, and is extremely nervous throughout her stay here. She expresses a decided preference for Atlanta, and is determined to locate there permanently.

Newsboys Quarrel About Case.

A decidedly unusual incident occurred this morning while she was shopping. Just as she left the Wannamaker store, at Chestnut and Thirteenth streets, two newsboys engaged in a quarrel.

"Don't you believe she's innocent?" she heard one of the newsies say.

"Naw; and you can't swear she is, either," retorted the other. "You know she's guilty."

"You're a liar," shot back the other, and they immediately locked in a short scrap. Mrs. Grace passed on, making the remark: "Could they have been talking about me?"

Another woman in the case stoutly suggested by the newspapers is adding denser mystery to the affair. Phil-

PHILADELPHIA HIGH SOCIETY MAY TESTIFY IN GRACE CASE

By Britt Craig.

Philadelphia, March 22.—(Special.)—Nine prominent society people, members of Philadelphia's four hundred, will go to Atlanta upon the trial of Mrs. Daisy Grace to testify to incidents in the married life of Mr. and Mrs. Grace, which will be of benefit to the accused, it is freely reported throughout this city.

As a result, there is a decided ferment in Philadelphia society. The reports have caused consternation. The names of the reported society witnesses have not been disclosed, and society is trembling, each member fearing intimate friends may be subpoenaed.

J. A. Branch, Mrs. Grace's attorney, when asked by The Constitution's representative if he would call witnesses from Philadelphia, answered: "You can't summon witnesses from another state" and that was all he would say on the subject, leaving the reporter shortly afterwards.

It is said that the society witnesses in the Grace trial will state their knowledge of numerous incidents in the domestic life of the accused wife, which will be of benefit to her. Many such instances are said to be well known in Philadelphia. Mrs. Grace seems to have been exceptionally well liked and her friends in the Quaker City are numbered by the hundreds.

Plans were made before her arrival for her entertainment, but immediately after she received notice of such occasions she politely declined to attend.

She leaves Saturday at noon for Atlanta, securing passage straight through, and will arrive in Georgia Sunday about dusk. During her trip to Philadelphia she appeared somewhat anxious about the result of the trial. Tonight, however, she seems very confident.

ENGLISH STRIKE GROWING WEAKER

Agreement May Be Reached at Conference Monday.

Strike Leaders Appear to Realize Uselessness of Fighting Both Government and Owners While Dependent on Depleted Union Funds.

London, March 22—The government minimum wage bill, introduced by Premier Asquith in an endeavor to bring about a settlement of the coal strike, passed through the committee stage in the house of commons at 1:20 o'clock this morning, practically in its original form. Nearly all the amendments submitted had been withdrawn or defeated.

Whether the bill ever will reach the statute books is questionable, for it is not unlikely that a conference of mine owners and miners, called by Premier Asquith for Monday, will result in an agreement, rendering the bill unnecessary. In this case the measure might be withdrawn.

It is believed labor leaders, having failed to induce the government to define in the bill the minimum rates to be paid underground workers, would prefer a settlement without legislation.

It is clear the strike movement is weakening and the men are anxious to return to work. The attitude of the leaders Friday was in strong contrast to the spirit of defiance previously shown. They appeared to have realized the uselessness of fighting both the coal miners and the government while dependent upon their rapidly exhausting union treasuries, and present indications are that work in the mines will be resumed in a few days.

Lloyds Lower Rates.

The situation, however, changes so rapidly that nothing concerning the strike can be predicted. It was considered significant that yesterday Lloyds was ready to accept low rates of insurance against the strike continuing beyond March 31.

Premier Asquith in the house of commons this afternoon refused to accept the miners' demands for an amendment to the minimum wage bill providing a minimum of $1.25 and 50 cents as the daily wage for men and boys, respectively.

The house had just entered upon the committee stage of the minimum wage bill when the miners' amendment was moved, and Premier Asquith's pronouncement, the gravity of which was immediately recognized because it is practically certain to bring about another dead-lock, caused a sensation.

In opposing the miners' amendment the premier said he was inclined to think the figures reasonable ones, but that it was most undesirable to insert in the bill any specific minimum wage or to establish the precedent of fixing the rate of wages by act of parliament.

Situation Still Acute.

This leaves the British industrial situation still in a stage of crisis. Enoch Edwards, labor member of parliament, and president of the miners' federation of Great Britain, immediately announced that the premier's rejection of the miners' amendment closed the door to an immediate settlement of the strike.

Now that they have failed to obtain what they demanded, the miners may refuse to return to work and the government will be then faced with the necessity of taking those "other and different measures" foreshadowed by the premier yesterday, and which are believed to mean adequate protection for those men desiring to return to work.

Despite the decisions of the unions there is already, particularly in Scotland, a steady trickling of the miners back to the pits. Even with a general resumption, however, the mines will not be in working order again before Easter and some of the smaller ones, which have been flooded, never will be reopened.

Some of the larger mine owners, too, declare that it will be impossible to work their pits were the minimum rates of wages granted. In the meantime starvation menaces the industrial population of the country. Funds of the trades unions are running low. In some places this week's payment of out-of-work benefit will be the last.

HOW TO RIDE IN YOUR OWN AUTO

Send in Your Nomination and Then Get Busy Securing Valuable Coupons.

In Sunday's edition of The Constitution you will find a double page ad giving a description and a cut of all the prizes that are to be given away in our circulation campaign. Don't fail to look for this ad, read it, then look in another part of the paper and find the list of candidates that have entered. If you do not find the name of the woman that you wish to vote for, then cut out the nomination blank, fill out with the name and address of the woman whom you do want to win one of the thirteen automobiles, and mail to the campaign department; we will do the rest. She will be supplied with all forms, etc., necessary for her to make a winning race.

Don't think it is too late, as the campaign is just starting; the race will start in earnest this coming week and you or your friends might as well own one of these cars.

Think of it; thirteen automobiles, four of them are grand prizes, two in each division. The four grand prizes are six-cylinder Mitchells, all big, roomy cars, and will last you a lifetime.

If you have been thinking of buying a car this spring, why don't you go to work and win one of the cars that we are giving away?

A little work during the next seven weeks and one of these cars will be yours. Phone or write the campaign manager for details; it will cost you nothing to ask for information, and after the plan has been explained, you can then decide on what you want to do. Don't fail to read the double page ad in Sunday's paper.

POVERTY STRICKEN WIDOW AND CHILDREN LEFT BY MAN WHO SACRIFICED HIS LIFE IN DEFENSE OF A WOMAN

Aaron Morris, who was killed by a negro when he answered call for aid from neighbor, and his widow and three of his children, who were left in sore need by his death.

Mrs. Aaron Morris Tells Touching Story of Death of Her Husband.

Because a young father, newly come to Atlanta to make a home for his wife and four little girls and the baby soon to come, rushed impulsively to the call of a woman in danger, his neighbor who had been good to him, the wife and children were alone in the home last night.

Friday afternoon, less than twenty-four hours after Aaron Morris answered Mrs. Cohen's cry with his life, he was carried to the grave from an empty bleak room, where, according to the Jewish law, he had lain on the bare boards all day, a row of candles burning about his head. The little ones he left slept together in the one bed of the house that night, while their mother, still wearing her single blood-stained kimono and skirt, crouched like a dead thing in a low chair before the fire.

Nobody to Help Her.

"I have nobody to help me," she said in broken, hollow tones, as if her very grief had banished all animation from her voice. "We heard Mrs. Cohen call, 'Mr. Morris! Mr. Morris!' and he started out, and I told him to run. Lella and Bessie ran, too. When I reached the street and got to him near the high school he said to me, 'I'm killed.

"At the hospital I asked him, 'How you feel?' and he said, 'I feel bad. I'm going to die.' Then the nurse, she say, 'He's better now. You can go home.' When I went back he was dead."

Aaron Morris came to Atlanta about three months ago to get work before bringing his wife and children from Memphis, where they had lived the last six years. He secured work recently at the Equitable barber shop and sent for them just a week ago. In the meantime he had boarded with Mrs. Cohen, at 87 Gilmer street, whose distressed cry he answered Thursday night, when she was attacked by a

TWO ARE KILLED IN WRECK AT OCONEE

Work Train Hits Three Cows, Overturning Cars.

Oconee, Ga., March 22.—At 6:45 o'clock this morning a Central railway train carrying a large number of men to work filling in a trestle ran over three cows. The flat cars which made up the train turned over and two men were killed and several injured. The dead are:

F. M. TURNER, engineer, of Tennille, Ga.

W. L. SLEDGE, trainman, of Macon.

Fatally injured:

T. W. Hodges, trainman, of Oconee.

Seriously injured:

B. L. Wright, Gordon, Ga., conductor.

D. T. Tedard, Macon; W. H. Godwin, Macon; C. S. Ham, Tennille. The injured were carried to Macon.

Hodges, Turner and Sledge were riding on the first flat car and were thrown under the wreckage when the cars hit the cows.

Turner was instantly killed and Sledge was badly mangled. Sledge was given medical attention by Dr. L. O. McBride, of Oconee, and then placed on the "Shoofly" train bound for Macon. He died at Gordon, en route to Macon. Hodges lives near Oconee with his wife and three children. Turner lived at Helena, was about 30 years old, and leaves family and several children. Sledge was from Sylvester and was unmarried.

Trainman T. W. Hodges, of Oconee, who had both legs broken and his shoulder dislocated, is at Williams sanitarium in Macon in a critical condition. He is said to be injured internally and the outcome is in doubt.

The train was in charge of Conductor Wright, who was severely bruised.

Hodges' body was brought to Tennille at noon. Engineer Opie was on the verge of nervous collapse and unable to continue at his post.

After repairs to the tracks trains were able to pass in a few hours.

LINDBERGH WOULD ABOLISH SENATE

Various Other "Reforms" in Resolution Representative Will Introduce.

Washington, March 22.—The abolition of the United States senate and the office of vice president, with a reduction of the membership of the house to 300 is proposed in a resolution which Representative Lindbergh, of Minnesota, announced today he would introduce next week. Mr. Lindbergh, as one of the advanced republican "progressives," forced the inquiry into the so-called "money trust."

The main feature of Mr. Lindbergh's resolution provides for the creation of a "committee at large," which would have absolute control over the legislative activity of congress. The members of the committee would be elected by the country at large for a term of fifteen years, and it could prevent the submission of bills to the president. This opposition could be overcome only by a two-thirds vote of the house.

In order to provide what Mr. Lindbergh called "checks and balances" for his plan, he invoked the recall of members of the "committee at large" whenever their actions, in the minds of the people, justified their removal. Presidential succession in the absence of the vice presidential office, would be dictated by the committee.

Mr. Lindbergh's resolution will be the first concrete plan for a change in the existing form of government, although many suggestions recently have been made. He declared his intention to press early and earnest consideration of his reform scheme and claimed he had a rapidly growing support for it.

FEDERALS ROUT MEXICAN REBELS

Army of 500 Defeats 1,800 Revolutionaries Near Jiminez.

Mexico City, March 22.—The vanguard of the federal army, numbering 500 men, commanded by General Trucy Aubert, met and defeated 1,800 rebels, under General Salazar, 20 miles south of Jiminez today, according to reports received at the government offices here.

For five hours, according to this report, the federals sustained vicious attacks on the part of the rebels, whom they finally routed on account of their superior arms and discipline. General Aubert's force has been advancing steadily from Torreon to the north for three days, while the rebel body sent out by General Orozco has been moving triumphantly southward from Chihuahua for a week.

The scouts of the two armies sighted each other at 7 o'clock this morning, and preparations began on both sides for battle. The fight occurred on open ground, giving both forces an excellent opportunity for the employment of their cavalry. Several machine guns in the hands of the federals are

JOE BOONE SHOT DEAD FOR ROCKING HOUND

Roanoke, Ala., March 22.—Joe Boone, of Heard county, Ga., was shot and killed at High Shoals, north of here, last night, by Frank Wood. Boone was passing Wood's house, when a hound dog ran out and barked at him. He threw rocks at the animal. Young Wood ran out with his shotgun and fired upon Boone, who went about a mile down the road and expired. His dead body was found by a passer-by during the night.

WILSON COMING TO ATLANTA TO SAVE HIS BOOM

Senator Smith and Congressman Hardwick Will Be in Attendance.

APPEAL FOR HELP FROM SUPPORTERS IS HEEDED

Will Make One Last, Determined Effort to Stem Underwood Tide—Alabamian Adheres to Determination Not to Let Candidacy Interfere With Congressional Duties.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, March 22.—(Special.)—In a final, desperate effort to turn the tide of popular favor in Georgia from Congressman Underwood, of Alabama, to Governor Wilson, of New Jersey, the latter will himself visit Atlanta in April, and will be accompanied by his two staunch supporters, Senator Hoke Smith and Congressman Thomas W. Hardwick. Announcement to this effect was made in Washington today.

It has been known here for several weeks that the Wilson boomers in Georgia have been urging that something be done to save the situation, for they have been fully alive to the fact that Georgia was rapidly and irrevocably turning to the southern man for president, but not until today was it announced positively that this call for assistance would be heeded.

Senator Hoke Smith was himself asked about the report.

"I will probably be in Atlanta," he replied, "on the occasion of Governor Wilson's visit. I think the date will be in early April, but later than the first of the month."

It was learned definitely that Congressman Hardwick would, also, be present.

It is realized here thoroughly that the situation in Georgia has become extremely serious from the Wilson standpoint. The boomers on the spot have kept the wires busy, insisting that their only hope for success would be for one last determined stand, with Governor Wilson himself present, and with Senator Hoke Smith and as many Georgia congressmen as possible in attendance.

And, in response to these urgent, persistent appeals, Governor Wilson will relinquish his executive reins in New Jersey, and Senator Smith and Congressman Hardwick will forsake Washington long enough to make a final stand in Atlanta, in the hope of thwarting what now seems to be the certain success of the distinguished Alabamian's candidacy in his neighboring state.

UNDERWOOD WILL STICK TO DUTY.

Waynesboro, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—The Underwood campaign in Georgia is attracting widespread attention and seems to be growing in strength every day. It has taken on a more local aspect in Waynesboro because of the fact that R. Cuyler Gordon, who was a classmate of Hon. Oscar W. Underwood at the Virginia university and also is a citizen of this city, has been making an effort to induce Mr. Underwood to visit Waynesboro and address the citizens of the state at this point. In reply to the invitation Mr. Underwood said:

"I wish very much that I could accept your invitation to come to Waynesboro on April 1, but it is impossible for me to accept any invitations that will take me away from Washington. If I accepted it I will have to accept a hundred others and I would have to abandon the work in the house. It is my duty to stay here and attend to the business of a democratic house at this session, as the future of the democratic party depends largely on the work of this congress. I believe my remaining here will meet with the approval of my friends throughout the country."

BRYAN SAYS WALL STREET CONTROLS GOVERNOR HARMON

Lincoln, Neb., March 22.—Declaring that Governor Harmon is a reactionary and the choice of Wall street, William J. Bryan has given out a statement attacking the candidacy of the Ohio governor. Mr. Bryan comments on the attitude taken by Senator Hitchcock favoring Governor Harmon, and adds:

"Governor Harmon cannot be nominated without the active aid of Wall street, and Mr. Bryan has worked too hard and too long for progressive democratic principles to become instrumental in surrendering the party into the control of predatory interests. If Nebraska's democracy instructs for Harmon, Mr. Bryan will refuse to serve as a delegate (in case he is elected), but will, instead, go to Baltimore as an individual and do what he can to secure the nomination of a progressive democrat."

RIVAN G. O. P. MANAGERS FIGHTING OVER TEXAS

Washington, March 22.—Counter charges that efforts had been made to coerce federal officeholders of Texas are made by the Taft and Roosevelt headquarters in statements given out here.

The Roosevelt managers declared the Taft workers were making an "open and unblushing attempt to coerce the republicans of Texas into selecting Taft delegates to the Chicago convention by means of the patronage club."

In a counter statement the Taft bureau declares Cecil Lyon, republican national committeeman for Texas, has been trying to force federal officeholders into line for Colonel Roosevelt's candidacy; and that attempts have been made to collect funds from officeholders for Roosevelt campaign purposes.

The Roosevelt headquarters tonight added another statement on the same subject to the series of the day, referring to a political advertisement in Texas papers attributed to H. F. MacGregor, the Taft manager in that state.

"This advertisement takes place in history beside the notorious Norton letter, wherein the secretary to the president admitted his use of federal patronage to force congress to pass the kind of legislation Mr. Taft desired," said Senator Dixon, the Roosevelt manager. "That procedure was gross violation of the spirit of the bribery statute, and certainly was intimidation."

MANY UNDERWOOD MEN IN MARYLAND

Leader to Start Active Campaign to Capture State Delegation.

Accompanied by Many Members of Alabama and Mississippi Delegations, He Will Attend Reception Given in His Honor at Annapolis.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, March 22.—(Special.)—Oscar W. Underwood will not lack for local supporters and friends when the democratic convention meets in Baltimore. Inauguration of an active campaign to capture the Maryland delegation for Mr. Underwood will be launched at a state-wide reception to the democratic leader to be held at Annapolis, Md., next Monday evening.

Accompanied by a large party of congressmen, Mr. Underwood will leave Washington by electric line, arriving at Annapolis at 4:30, and will hold a reception at Carvel hall until 7 o'clock. He will be the guest of Governor Phillips L. Goldsborough at dinner at the executive mansion at 8 o'clock, after which he will visit the state house, where the legislature is in session, and greet the members of the senate and house of delegates and make a short address.

Although the governor of the state is a republican and many members of the legislature belong to that faith, they will unite in doing honor to the distinguished democrat who is being strongly urged for the presidency. Following the visit, Mr. Underwood will be the guest of honor at a supper at famous Carvel hall, where the delicacies for which Maryland is noted will be spread. Here he will make another speech, but neither will be of a personal political character, though he will give the diners the benefit of some good democratic doctrine.

Almost the entire Alabama delegation in congress, as well as many members of the Mississippi delegation, will accompany Mr. Underwood. Others who have been especially invited are Representatives Francis Burton Harrison, of New York, Martin Littleton of New York, and William Schley Howard, of Georgia, all strong personal friends of the democratic house leader.

Mr. Underwood has arranged the trip so that it will not keep him away from any of the sessions of the house, as he has determined not to let his candidacy interfere in the slightest with his congressional duties.

WILSON MEN ARE SHY OF DETAILS

Recent Claim of 800 Delegates Thought to Have Included Maine and Indiana.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, March 23.—(Special.)—Several days ago the Woodrow Wilson campaign headquarters here gave to The Associated Press a statement claiming 800 votes in the democratic national convention—it being strangely significant that even this claim, if materialized, would give Wilson the nominating two-thirds vote only by the "skin of the teeth."

Whether or not the results of the past week have altered this claim remains to be seen, for strange to say, the headquarters here, upon request, refuse to give out a detailed showing of what states the claim was based.

It appears that they just made the claim for effect, never for a moment considering that they would be asked for an analysis. It is also understood that both Kansas and Maine were included in the estimates as originally given out, though, of course, this cannot be definitely stated, since nobody knows how the claim was reached, the general opinion being that it was political buncombe pure and simple.

At any rate, no claim is being made now.

PARAGUAY IN MIDST OF BIG REVOLUTION

Buenos Ayres, March 22.—A fierce battle between revolutionaries and the government forces in Paraguay has been going on for several days and is still raging according to telegrams received here from Asuncion today.

JOHN RAWN

By Emerson Hough

Author of The Mississippi Bubble, 54-40 or Fight, etc.

It is a progressive novel—one of the little voices of the era. You would better read it, for it will teach you something.
—Cleveland Plain Dealer

Dramatic in treatment, important in theme, and as entertaining throughout as any piece of fiction can possibly be, John Rawn must be given its place among the really notable contributions to current American Literature. —Pittsburgh Post

The principal thing about this book is the way Mr. Hough handles his hero. It reminds one of Fielding's matchless analysis of that rascally thief-taker, Jonathan Wild. John Rawn is a book that you cannot sidestep if it once gets in your way. Its pages are packed with vivid pictures and wise commentaries. Between its covers the conflicting currents of temporary life are seen winding to their inevitable destination. —Boston Globe

KNELL SOUNDING FOR WILSON BOOM

Daily Developments Point to the Absolute Collapse of Wilson's Candidacy.

By John Corrigan, Jr.

Washington, March 22.—(Special.)—Every development every day now points to the utter and absolute collapse of the Woodrow Wilson boom. Indiana is the last nail and it makes the fourth state that has acted, and out of the whole bunch Wilson has succeeded in getting the instructed vote of only one-half of the Oklahoma delegation, when before the state convention the whole delegation was conceded to him.

Even Wilson's most sanguine supporters here now do not claim that he will get the vote of either New York, Connecticut, or Ohio, and more than that, it is a matter of common knowledge among all those who know anything about the situation, that even if by any possibility he should be nominated, he cannot carry either New York or Connecticut in the regular election, and without New York it is impossible for the democrats to win this fall. The party may as well give up the fight now if it expects to win it without carrying New York. With New York the chances are exceedingly bright, and there is no possible doubt that New York can be carried with any other candidate than Wilson.

The inevitable logic of the situation, therefore, as emphasized by the action of the four states that have already elected delegates is that Wilson is eliminated as a further serious factor.

This fact becomes more apparent every day.

DENNAR HUGHES FOR UNDERWOOD

Well-Known Danville Man Is Strongly in Favor of Alabamian.

Danville, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Dennar Hughes, one of the most prominent citizens of Twiggs county, and a well-known banker, merchant and farmer, is one of the strongest Underwood men in south Georgia. It is not often that Mr. Hughes takes any active interest in political affairs, though his father, Hon. Dudley M. Hughes, is the representative in congress from this district. However, Mr. Hughes believes that the nomination of Mr. Underwood would be the safest and wisest thing the democratic party could do this year.

"Mr. Underwood has proven a safe leader, a wise counsellor, and a splendid legislator," said Mr. Hughes. "He has had a difficult and trying task, and has measured up to it in a way to make all democrats, and particularly all southerners, feel proud. He has welded the democratic house into a cohesive and effective fighting force, and his nomination as the democratic standard bearer is but a fair reward for his earnest labors."

TO PROBE "TRUSTS" OF COAL DEALERS

Department of Justice Contemplates Investigation of the Northwestern Associations.

Washington, March 22.—The department of justice contemplates an investigation of associations of coal dealers in the northwest, which, it has been charged, have combined to maintain a high price of coal in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law.

No inquiry into an alleged trust in the mining and transportation of coal has been initiated, it is declared, in addition to the proceedings already in the course.

Numerous complaints against the associations of coal dealers, principally in the great lakes region, have reached the department during the last few months. It is believed here that a proposed inquiry into this situation is the one referred to in the Chicago reports.

F. J. PAXON MAKES TALK TO THE TECH STUDENTS

F. J. Paxon addressed the Tech students in the chapel yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock on "Credits and Business Practice." His talk was given in connection with the business science course which is being established at the school. Once a week some prominent business man from the city is secured to deliver a lecture to the seniors and juniors on business principles.

Mr. Paxon's talk was exceedingly interesting and probably the most forcible that has been delivered before the men. Starting at the bottom, he related the different business methods used in running a large department store, and making his argument more forcible by using concrete illustrations. He stated that although addressing a body of future engineers, he used the management of a department store as an example, for business principles were the same in all cases, to come down to plain facts. He also stated that he was sorry to say that success in this day was measured to a large extent, by his bank balance, and not by his usefulness to humanity. In the south, he said, that credit was based 75 per cent on a man's moral standing, while in the east 75 per cent of the credits were based on a man's tangible assets. He held the strict attention of the students throughout his address, and it is to be hoped that the future talks will be up to the standard set by Mr. Paxon.

The movement for establishing a chair in business science at Tech is being rapidly pushed forward by Professor Kell and a number of the alumni. Mr. P. H. Norcross, president of the Tech Alumni Association, will address the students next week.

MOUNTAIN BOY'S DARING RESCUE

Father and Neighbor Were Pulled From Death in Raging Torrent.

Uniontown, Pa., March 22.—The daring and strength of a 19-year-old Laurel Ridge mountain boy were responsible for the rescue near here today of the youth's father and an aged neighbor, who had been caught in the deadly current of a swollen mountain stream that was rushing them to a 300-foot waterfall.

The hero of the rescue was young John Hardy. Early this morning he and other members of his family were awakened by screams for help. They hurried out of doors to find, floating past their house on a swollen stream a cabin. In the doorway of the cabin, praying for help, was William McDowell, an 85-year-old neighbor. His home had been wrenched from its foundation by the flood and swept into the torrent.

Only a short distance down stream was a waterfall of 300 feet. A dash over this meant death for the cabin's occupant.

Charles Hardy, John's father, raced with the careening cabin until he got ahead of it. Then he plunged into the creek and reached the side of the frightened mountaineer.

Hurriedly the older Hardy scrambled from the cabin with his charge. John, running along the stream's bank, had fasted a rope about his waist. He threw this into the stream near to the men. They grasped it.

Their combined weights dragged John along the bank till he reached a big tree. The youth clinched this and held fast. Then he began calling for help.

As neighbors arrived John fainted. He was carried to his home by the men he had rescued. He will survive.

Soon after the two men left it, the cabin crashed over the waterfall.

"WAR MUNITIONS" DECIDED UPON

Exportation of Food, Clothing and Dry Goods to Mexico Not Forbidden.

Washington, March 22.—The United States will not interfere with legitimate exportations of food, clothing, dry goods and hardware to Mexico. President Taft and his cabinet today decided that such necessities did not come within the meaning of the president's proclamation forbidding the exportation of "munitions of war" during the Mexican revolution.

The question of permitting dynamite and other explosives to go from this country to Mexico for use by smelting and mining companies was referred to Attorney General Wickersham.

Collectors of customs in the southwest and merchants at El Paso, Texas, raised the questions whether foodstuffs and clothing were included in the broad phrase, "munitions of war," on which the president placed an embargo. The collectors were instructed by the treasury department tonight not to interfere with ordinary commercial shipments of food, clothing, dry goods and hardware.

SOPHOMORE DISAPPEARS ON WAY BACK TO EMORY

Marshall T. McGee, of Newnan, Ga., has not been heard from by his parents since his departure from home, March 9, to return to Emory college, where he is a sophomore.

They discovered last Thursday that he was not at college. Up to that time the faculty thought he was still at home.

No letters were received after his departure, and his father, W. E. McGee, on Thursday telephoned President James E. Dickey, of Emory, to ask about his son. Nothing had been heard of him at college.

The parents are seriously disturbed, as they know no reason why he should have disappeared. A liberal reward has been offered by the father for information as to his son's whereabouts.

Young McGee is only 17 years old.

Lewis' Bond Is Forfeited.—The bond of $100 put up by I. C. Clark for the appearance of H. T. Lewis, of Chicago, arrested on a charge of doing business without a license, was forfeited. Lewis, also known under the name of Woods, fled the city after securing his release on a cash collateral put up by Clark. He was charged with the theft of a carload of scrap material from The Sunny South Printing Company. Clark is on the bond of Mrs. Eugene H. Grace.

JAP TRIES TO KILL HIS ENGLISH WIFE

Seattle, Wash., March 22.—George S. Matsusaki, an American born Japanese 22 years old, who recently married Mrs. Hona Mills, 19, an Englishwoman, stabbed her in the neck last night. Believing he had killed her, he shot himself in the throat, the bullet lodging in the spinal cord. Mrs. Matsusaki will recover but the Japanese will die.

The couple were married in Vancouver, Washington, January 8, 1912. Mrs. Matsusaki says she had left her husband but he induced her to return.

Flint River Recedes.

Albany, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—After rising higher than during any freshet for nearly ten years, the waters of the Flint river began receding last night, and have fallen several inches today. The river was more than 26 feet above low water mark yesterday afternoon and last night, and bottom lands for many miles were flooded. In some localities farm lands that had been plowed were flooded, but there has been no extensive damage.

CHANGING THE LENGTH OF COATS FOR WOMEN

New York, March 22.—Women's coats will be thirty-two inches long next winter and not an inch longer or shorter, according to a decision by the Suit Designers' Association now in convention here. The question whether the length should be thirty-two or thirty-four inches or both was debated for more than six hours and the proceedings became so animated at times that the presiding officer pounded the head of his gavel flat with repeated appeals for order.

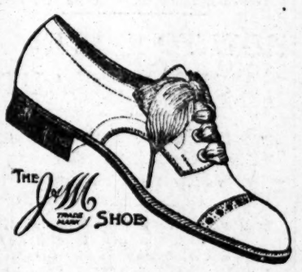

Farmers to Telephone.

Lyerly, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—A petition for charter has been applied for by R. E. Echols, W. D. Gilkerson, J. T. Weaver and R. H. Alexander for the purpose of erecting a telephone line known as the "farmers' system." The principal office of the company will be located here.

Mail Horse Ran Away.

Lyerly, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Millard Mosteller, substitute rural carrier, had a close call when his horse took fright and ran away with the buggy. Mr. Mosteller jumped before the animal had got much start. The horse was not stopped until it had gone about three miles.

ILLINOIS AND MISSOURI ARE SWEPT BY STORM

St. Louis, March 22.—Snow and rain which fell yesterday and last night have demoralized transportation and wire communication in southwestern Illinois and Missouri. A heavy wind added greatly to the damage.

The heavy rains and melting snow have swollen the Mississippi and Ohio rivers and farmers living near their junction are preparing to move their livestock and household property to higher ground.

The gauge at Cairo, Ill., registered 44.1 this morning, a rise of 1.7 feet in 24 hours.

The water is within 10 inches of the danger mark.

DEFENSE BEGINS IN SUGAR TRIAL

New York, March 22.—After ten days of testimony, the government rested its case today in the trial of John E. Parsons, Washington B. Thomas and other directors of the American Sugar Refining Company, for alleged criminal violation of the Sherman law. This will allow the defense to begin offering testimony Monday, although the attorneys announced that their first move would be to ask a dismissal of the indictments.

Closing of the government's case was hastened by an agreement between opposing attorneys in regard to the proposal of the government to submit evidence to prove the "sugar trusts'" alleged policy of monopoly. After Charles R. Heike, the convicted former secretary of the company, had testified along this line, District Attorney Wise agreed to waive his evidence on condition that the defense should supply a statement showing what refineries the "trust" had shut down.

The defense today succeeded in having ruled out government evidence intended to prove further conspiracy on the part of the "sugar trust" to entangle Adolph Segal in debt to clinch its alleged grip on the Pennsylvania Sugar Refinery Company.

The evidence had to do with a loan alleged to have been made to Segal with "trust" money by Gustave E. Kissel, subsequent to the $1,250,000 loan. According to the district attorney, these subsequent loans were made to Segal to keep him in such bad shape financially as to prevent him from paying back the $1,250,000 loan, thus preventing his refinery from being opened.

Judge Hand ruled that the evidence did not show such conspiracy, but allowed the prosecutor to show that Kissel made subsequent loans, for which he personally received stock of the Pennsylvania Sugar Refining Company.

COTTON WORKERS GET WAGE RAISE

Advance of 10 Per Cent Offered Operatives by Fall River Association.

Fall River, Mass., March 22.—There will be no strike in the Fall River mills Monday. This was definitely decided tonight when the members of the five unions affiliated with the textile council voted unanimously to accept the advance of 10 per cent in wages tendered by the manufacturers. Thousands of operatives are represented in the unions which accepted the raise. They previously had rejected an offer of 5 per cent increase.

M. C. D. Borden, controlling the seven mills of the Fall River Iron Works Company, announced an advance of 10 per cent earlier in the week and thirty-five other corporations, controlling 100 mills, followed the lead today. About 35,000 operatives will be benefited.

New Bedford manufacturers, who recently advanced wages 5 per cent, have been watching the situation in Fall River closely, for, although they manufacture a different class of goods, they have generally followed the local wage scale. Union leaders here were elated with the result tonight and did not hesitate to predict a general 10 per cent advance elsewhere.

It is expected the Rhode Island cotton manufacturers also will make the amount of increase recently announced at 10 per cent. The Rhode Island cotton mills employ about 20,000 operatives.

At Webster, Mass., more than 5,000 operatives have received notices of 5 per cent wage advance.

Notices posted tonight at seven cotton mills in Danielson, Conn., announced that, commencing April 1, a higher wage scale would go into effect. The exact amount of the increase is not stated, but it is said to be between 5 and 10 per cent. Nearly 1,700 operatives will be affected.

Owing to a strike of 1,000 operatives the Lancaster gingham mills at Clinton, Mass., closed for an indefinite period tonight. The principal demand of the workers is for a 10 per cent increase. A conference of the employees and manufacturers has been arranged for tomorrow in the hope of reaching a settlement. The strike has not spread to other mills.

SIDNA EDWARDS IS CAPTURED

First Important Arrest in Virginia Courthouse Assassination.

Posses Are Encouraged and Hope to Get Leaders of the Allen Gang in Short While. Edwards Helped Start the Original Trouble.

Hillsville, Va., March 22.—Sidna Edwards, a tall, rugged mountaineer of 22, sat calmly in the darkness of the little brick jail here tonight, the first catch of the posses who have been scouring the mountains for those of the Allen gang who got away after the courthouse assassination of March 14, when a judge, prosecutor, sheriff and two by-standers were killed and two others were seriously wounded.

Tonight young Edwards, emaciated and worn from a week's wandering in the thicket, protests his innocence of the indictment of murder against him, and the hunters, spurred on by a day's success, are up in the Blue Ridge hunting for the same charge, his brother, Wesley Edwards; his uncle, Sidna Allen, and his cousins, Claude and Friel Allen.

Detective LeGrand Felts and W. W. Phaut, heading a posse, came upon Edwards at 4 o'clock this morning, asleep in an empty hut a mile from his home. He was unarmed and when he woke the detectives were at his side. He made no resistance and went to a farmer's house near Lamsbug, Va., and started for Hillsville with his captors early today.

Jack Allen, his uncle—one of the Allens who was not at the courthouse on the day of the tragedy—joined his nephew on the way in and galloped along with the party.

Posed for Moving Pictures.

They cantered in and paused while the moving picture men clicked off a few hundred feet of films. Detectives carrying rifles followed closely. The party turned in a little lane where the raiders a week ago drew rein and left their ponies while they went to wipe out the human fabric of Carroll court. Sidna left his mount and was hustled to the little jail across from the stables. He protested against being put into a musty cell, and wanted to occupy the corridor, but his keeper was stern and locked him up.

Jack Allen came out and said to the newspaper men:

"My nephew, Sidna, is the most peaceable man in the county. He wouldn't know what to do with a gun if he had it."

A little questioning angered Allen and he declared his family was being grossly misrepresented.

"Fists will fly pretty soon," he said, as two detectives escorted him over the hill.

Rumor flew persistently about the countryside today that the Allen gang, still at large, discouraged by the taking of Edwards and probably impressed with the ultimate futility of their flight, had sent a proposition to Governor Mann offering to surrender if they were permitted to plead guilty to murder in the second degree.

Such a proposal was said to have been made to Detective W. G. Baldwin at Roanoke by a relative of the Allens, but the detective refused to talk about it. It is said he turned it down. Governor Mann, in Richmond, tonight declared he had heard of no such proposal.

Started the Trouble.

Sidna Edwards, the boy in jail tonight, and his brother, Wesley, were the principals in an escapade which started the trouble which culminated in the assassination at the courthouse. The brothers had attempted to oust an uncle of theirs, a minister named Garland, from his pulpit, and were arrested for breaking the peace. Floyd Allen attempted to free them, and had been convicted and sentenced for intefering with an officer when the shooting on March 14 began.

The authorities began today rounding up those who are charged with complicity in helping the Allen gang make their getaway. Gordon Edwards and Alex Thomas were held for aiding and abetting criminals, and released on $500 bonds.

Prosecutor Landreth declared today that the trials would be called up on April 15. When court convenes on Tuesday other indictments for the murder of Juror Fowler, who died a few hours after the fray, would be reported.

W. H. Ellis, an attorney who is representing the Allens, said tonight that he probably would ask for a change of venue for some of them. He admitted that Sidna Allen probably shot Judge Massie intentionally, but ventured the opinion that the courthouse battle was not premeditated, but that both sides were overexcited by Floyd Allen's refusal to go to jail.

Posses at Carolina Line.

The posses are over toward the Carolina line tonight and news of a trail on the rest of the gang is expected at any moment.

COWS WILL BE KEPT OFF AMERICUS STREETS

Waycross, Ga., March 22.—(Special.) By a majority of 192 votes, Waycross citizens today banished cows from the city. The election was spirited, but from the opening of the voting places it was evident that the anti-cow people were in the majority. Nearly 700 votes were cast, 445 going against cows running at large. The city council, as a result of this election, will immediately pass ordinance prohibiting cattle running at large within the city limits, to take effect within at least ninety days from date.

ARMED MEN ON TRAIN FRIGHTEN PASSENGERS

St. Joseph, Mo., March 22.—Two armed men who had terrorized passengers on Burlington train No. 43 from Kansas City, were captured by police officers after a fight in the chair car as the train drew into the union depot here tonight. They gave their names as Don and John Ray, 22 and 19 years of age, respectively, and had tickets from Franklin, N. C., to Billings, Mont. Revolvers and a quantity of ammunition were taken from the men.

The men, according to the train crew, had not made any demand that the passengers hold up their hands, but one declared he was going to make someone dance to his music.

HENDERSON URGED TO RUN FOR CONGRESS IN ELEVENTH

Hon. J. A. J. Henderson, of Ocilla, Ga., ex-member of the legislature from Irwin county and one of the most prominent figures in political and business circles in south Georgia, is being urged by his friends to announce his candidacy for congress from the eleventh district to succeed Congressman Brantley, who has announced that he will not make the race again.

Mr. Henderson was in Atlanta yesterday on business and on being asked in reference to the matter, said:

"Yes, the kindness of my friends in the various parts of the eleventh district in voluntarily writing me letters urging that I allow the use of my name in this connection has caused me to seriously consider doing so. I have not yet made up my mind one way or the other, but when I have had time to give the matter full consideration, will make announcement accordingly.

"Whether I make the race or not, the kindness of my friends in this connection has put me under lasting obligations. I have received many encouraging letters from the district pledging support and the consideration of my friends has made me feel very grateful to them."

Prominent in State Politics.

Mr. Henderson is one of the most prominent men of his section of the state, his activity in developing and advancing the interests of his section having been largely instrumental in the remarkable growth of the farming and business interests of the eleventh district. A practical farmer himself, Mr. Henderson has done much to aid the farmers generally of his district. He was one of the most energetic and enthusiastic workers for the Eleventh District Agricultural and Mechanical college and has been since its opening a member of its board of trustees. It was largely to Mr. Henderson's efforts that the school started its existence upon a sound financial foundation.

In addition, vast stretches of south Georgia lands have been opened up through the efforts of Mr. Henderson as a railroad organizer and builder. He has just completed the Ocilla Southern railroad from Nashville to Fitzgerald, through a country which had had heretofore had no railroad facilities, and work is now going forward in extending the line on to Rochelle.

Worked for Farming Interests.

During Mr. Henderson's service in the Georgia legislature he took a prominent stand on all measures looking to the advancement of the farming interests of the state and served as chairman of many important committees during his four terms in the house and one term in the senate.

J. A. J. HENDERSON.

Especially notable was his work as chairman of the committee to consider the proposed fertilizer tag tax and it was largely due to his efforts that the farmers were saved thousands of dollars as the result of the committee's action.

Mr. Henderson claims the unique distinction of being the biggest builder of railroads in his district, one of the biggest lumber shippers in Georgia, as well as one of the biggest turpentine men and one of its biggest cotton, corn and grain growers. He grew last year on a single field of 1,000 acres considerably more than a thousand bales of cotton.

Mr. Henderson is a member of a family which has long been prominent in the south and numbers his friends in such numbers throughout the district that he will undoubtedly take a leading position in the race should he consent to announce his candidacy.

FLYING RECORD MADE AT AUGUSTA

Walsh Climbs 910 Feet With 660 Pounds in Seven Minutes.

Augusta, Ga., March 22.—What army officers believe is a new world record, certainly they hold a new American record, was made by Aviator Walsh here this afternoon at the army camp with the Curtiss machine, built to meet special specifications by the war department.

In an unfavorable wind, Walsh carried fuel ample for four hours' flying, weighing 180 pounds, 480 pounds added weight, an aggregate load of 660 pounds on the biplane, and climbed to an altitude of 910 feet in 7 minutes.

The final test of the list of specifications, which required an altitude of 2,000 feet with this weight and amount of fuel in 10 minutes, will be made at College Park.

HOWARD PAROLE BILL IS PASSED BY HOUSE

Washington, March 22.—(Special.)—Representative William Schley Howard's bill extending the terms of the federal parole law to life term convicts who have served fifteen years of their sentence was passed today by the house. This measure has the approval of the department of justice. It will now go to the senate.

TEDDY ROOSEVELT, JR., NOW GOTHAM BROKER

San Francisco, March 22.—Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., departed for New York to take up his duties with a brokerage firm there with which he is now associated. For the last two years he has been in the carpet business here. A farewell dinner was given in his honor last night by friends.

Young Roosevelt decided to return to New York at the time of his recent visit to his father, and came west again only to close up his affairs.

Anti-Hat Pin Crusade.

New York, March 22.—A new crusade against the long hat pin is to be launched here, this time by the city's department of health. As a beginner the plan is to post printed placards in street cars, elevated and subway lines, warning women who wear long and dangerous pins of the menace they are to others.

The Heart of the Hills

by John Fox, Jr.

Author of "The Trail of the Lonesome Pine" and "The Little Shepherd of Kingdom Come"

THIS is a story of vivid contrasts. The people of the Mountains are brought in contact with the people of the Blue Grass. The main interest of the plot revolves about a boy and girl of the hills and a boy and girl of the plains. It is their development from crude childhood to wiser maturity that enchains the reader. They are real people, as appealing and lovable as Chad or June of Fox's previous stories. There are dramatic action, humor, sentiment and pathos, and something of political turmoil. It is a story near at hand in its people and interest—a picture of modern Kentucky. Illustrations by F. C. Yohn.

Still, frazzled hats may be sent to the old political hat man.

The Dixie band wagon has the song and dance to catch all comers.

Not even any Teddy bears in North Dakota. (How he has lost out!)

Never do to send Doc Wiley to congress—not a big, helpful man like that!

When Dixie runs that White House she'll show 'em what southern hospitality is.

The wheels in the republican head are making many useless revolutions a minute.

The managers for Governor Wilson must have been the original claim agents.

North Dakota kicked that recall idea so high the Colonel won't wait for it to come down again.

Evidently Winter lingers to shy a snowball or two where Spring is sticking violets in her hair.

Mexico would save the cash she needs so badly by confining the little revolutions to the picture shows.

Of course, "the meat trust didn't hurt any one"—that is, no particular one: It just hit around, generally.

Among expert campaign managers there is always one leading spirit that knows how to claim delegates.

A few more rough kicks for the hat in the ring, and the ringmaster himself will be looking for another job.

No, it wasn't a silk hat in that North Dakota ring, but even if it had been they couldn't have kicked it harder.

Campaign orators lose out when their tempers get away with them. But they will be angry when their collar button rolls under the political bureau.

There will be big work for the republicans later on, for of course sentiment will make them want to save the pieces.

All are after the limelight, but not to the extent of advertising themselves as the vice presidential hope of the party.

That Mexican army marches up the hill, and then marches down again, to see if the foundation is in the same place.

The suffragettes should agree to give congress a series of lectures. And even then it wouldn't be getting half it deserves.

If they would conserve some of the campaign energy, think of the power they would have to devote to the upbuilding of the country.

England approves of Mr. Morgan's purchase of the Egyptian ruins, as he didn't take the liberty of ordering her to evacuate that country.

Since he got there first Amundsen is determined to be charitable and say nothing but good words of all late, unimportant arrivals.

It ought to be a year of vigorous national health. Think of the runners in the race and the muscle-making exercise they are getting.

So far Secretary Knox has kept his head, but it may be some time after his return before he ceases to ask them if it is on straight.

doubt Pierpont Morgan has cahome agents to keep a sharp any supposedly valuable republican party.

WHO IS ASLEEP?

What is the matter with the department in charge of the paving and repairing of the streets of Atlanta that it does not take cognizance of the horrible condition of the streets in the very heart of the city, not to speak of the almost impassable condition of some of the streets in the outlying districts? While it may be said that the bad weather of the past few months has prevented attention to the more remote streets, that excuse cannot apply to the brick and asphalt streets within the fire limits.

The Constitution could call attention to innumerable instances of deplorable neglect, but one within reach of almost everybody's observation will answer our purpose.

The next time you are out Peachtree street on the block beginning at the governor's mansion and extending to Harris street, just take a look at the condition of the paving in this short stretch! Nothing like it has ever been seen in the city of Atlanta, and the worst part of it is that the street has been in this condition for several months. There are ruts along every one of the four street car rails from a foot to a foot and a half deep, and the condition of the street is such as to be an actual menace to life and property—and this in the very heart of the city and on its most traveled thoroughfare.

If this were all, there might be some justification, but the whole street is almost as bad, and similar conditions exist on Whitehall, South Pryor and others of the city's main arteries.

The Constitution had hoped that somebody would get busy before now, and in this vain hope we have not thought it necessary to take up the matter.

But it seems that the condition is growing steadily worse, and that without any apparent effort to relieve it.

We do not fix the responsibility, for frankly we do not know where to place it. But we do know that unless something is done, and done very quickly, to give some evidence of life in whoever is responsible for this shameful neglect, we are going to find out just where the responsibility rests, and we are going to place it in such a way that there can be no doubt as to who is asleep!

A BELATED COMPLAINT.

Our esteemed contemporary, The Augusta Herald, one of the foremost Woodrow Wilson organs in Georgia, affects grief over what it characterizes as the "Hearst, Watson and Howell combination" to defeat the presidential aspirations of the New Jersey governor in this state, saying:

Frankly, we don't believe the democratic voters of Georgia are willing to take the national democratic program that is being so vigorously and unitedly urged upon them by this combination of Hearst, Watson and Howell. The political vagaries of Hearst and Watson are so well known and so well understood that they are only annoying and alarming when they pose for the time as democrats. Clark Howell, as national committeeman from Georgia for many years, ought really to know better than take his democracy out of the same bottle with Hearst and Watson. And yet this is the line-up in good old Georgia this year in the effort to defeat Woodrow Wilson for president. We can't believe that the alliance of Hearst, Watson and Howell is going to prevail against the voice of the people of the state of Georgia.

The always-interesting Herald's memory is defective, else it would hardly, with consistency, hinge a present complaint against The Constitution for taking its democracy out of the "same bottle" with Mr. Watson. Only a year or so ago The Herald was absorbing its democracy straight from Mr. Watson's bottle, undiluted and without the suggestion of a "chaser." Why it should so suddenly spurn that source of nourishment constitutes one of those little mysteries that enhance the piquancy of politics.

That to one side. The Constitution cheerfully welcomes the aid of Mr. Hearst and Mr. Watson for the reason that these two are espousing the cause of the people, as against the deliberate attempt of the democratic state executive committee to deprive them of their constitutional rights in the approaching presidential primary. The contest in Georgia is between Oscar Underwood and Woodrow Wilson. In the name of the latter candidate the committee has concocted rules for the primary and the ensuing convention that squarely and without excuse invade the spirit of the immemorial constitutional guarantees of representation and expression accorded the smaller counties in Georgia—making it possible, were not Wilson sentiment dying in the cities also, for ten of the large counties to absolutely nullify the political rights and the sentiment of the other 136.

The preservation of the fundamental principles of popular government, here directly menaced, The Constitution considers as of paramount importance. The initiative is what The Herald regards as a "line-up" comes no more from The Constitution to Mr. Watson, than from Mr. Watson to The Constitution, or Mr. Hearst to either. It is simply the involuntary coming together of elements determined not to see the people defrauded of their rights. The one way to rebuke a dangerous and insolent tendency in that direction is to carry the state against the man in whose name the country-county-disfranchisement scheme was invented and for Oscar Underwood, whose candidacy embodies the principle that all the people and not a part of the people shall have a voice in the choice of a presidential candidate and the framing of democracy's platform.

While the agitated Herald is registering complaint against the "Hearst, Watson and Howell" combination, why does it not make the record complete, and complain similarly against three-fourths of the daily and nine-tenths of the weekly papers in Georgia? They are solidly arrayed against the kill-the-country-vote plan and the man whose candidacy has been paralyzed in this state by being identified with it. The Constitution does not claim a monopoly of democracy in Georgia, nor does it preempt the right to expose the attempt to lynch the country vote. It welcomes all comers to a crusade that is one of the most righteous undertaken in this state for many years. But, really, the absent-minded Herald ought not to inveigh against the "Watson bottle." It has, too many times, tasted thirstily of its contents, and clamored avidly for more.

JUSTICE OLSON'S ADDRESS.

Of unusual interest to lawyers and Atlantans generally interested in the reform of judicial procedure will be the address of Chief Justice Harry Olson, of the municipal court of Chicago, at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the city council chamber. Justice Olson speaks under the auspices of the Atlanta Bar Association, which extends a cordial invitation to all citizens to attend.

Justice Olson has been, largely, the molder of the policies and procedure under which the municipal court of Chicago has blazed a new trail toward the simplification of justice. The glut of the petty criminal dockets in that city, overlapping jurisdiction and inefficiency of justice court methods to meet the situation, caused a general demand for reform. The municipal court was the remedy chosen. Under its operation not only has the administration of justice taken on a new smoothness, but the city has been saved large sums in eliminating the duplication of judicial functions.

A bill looking toward the creation of a similar court for Atlanta, introduced in the legislature by Representative McElreath and now pending, gives pertinent interest to Justice Olson's appearance here. He will doubtless be greeted by a large and sympathetic audience.

"Just From Georgia"

In the People's Own House.

"Be sure you get the postcards pictures of the White House on 'em," says The Adams Enterprise. "Lots of our people have never been to Washington, and now that the White House feeling is so strong with 'em, they demand the best pictures they can get of it. Many have already selected the very spot where they'll stand when President Underwood is being inaugurated, and are practicin' for the presidential hand-shake. There'll be plenty of excursions to Washington from all over Dixie, and there's no need to worry about getting there. So, go on with the campaign work to help swell the big majority, and when the White House says, 'Boys, I'm yours to command,' be ready to step up and kick the keep-off-the-grass signs too far for a hurricane to blow 'em back!"

In Contempt.

"Whoever placed this quart bottle on the court's desk," said the Billville justice, "is in contempt, an' is no gentleman, but so far from it as to be more of a hound-dog, and if he will step forward I'll accommodate him with the lickin' of his life. To add to the gravity of the offense, the bottle is empty, the bailiff testifying that he was unable to drain a dozen drops out of it. If the culprit ever staggers our way, may the Lord have mercy on him, for this here court won't!"

CHINESE SUFFRAGETTES SHOW FIGHTING SPIRIT

London, March 22.—Chinese suffragettes at Nanking, dissatisfied with the national assembly's academic resolution favoring women suffrage, according to advices received here today, forced an entry to the assembly, and after knocking down the police on guard, smashed the windows of the building. The meeting was suspended for a time and was reopened under military protection.

ADMIRAL G. W. MELVILLE LEAVES FUND FOR POOR

Philadelphia, Pa., March 22.—The will of the late Rear Admiral George W. Melville, probated here today, set aside a fund estimated at $150,000, for placing deserving poor and aged persons in institutions where they can receive proper care.

Such persons must be of the protestant faith or of the Society of Friends, and must be over 70 years old.

No person having any traces of the African or Asiatic race is eligible to become a beneficiary.

GEORGIA PROFESSOR KILLED IN COAL MINE

McCurtain, Okla., March 22.—W. D. Roper, the young engineer whose body was today sent to his former home at Clio, S. C., came to this place about two years ago. For three years before his coming here, it is said, he was a member of the faculty of a military academy in Georgia. Friends of Roper say he had intimated to them he was soon to have married a young woman of Georgia. His body was not found until more than twenty-four hours after the explosion.

Half a Century of Work.

Washington, March 22.—Fifty years of active railroad service without a black mark against his name is the record of William R. Wherry, a Pennsylvania railroad passenger conductor, who retired today at the age of 67. He had been a conductor for nearly 46 years and during that time a passenger had never been seriously injured or killed on his train. Mr. Wherry is a native of Cambridge county, Pa.

GEORGIA BOYS PREPARE FOR ANNUAL DEBATES

Athens, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—The past two days have been important ones in the life of the student body of the University of Georgia and among the events of interest have been the contests for the selection of the freshmen debaters from the Phi Kappa and the Demosthenian literary societies, and also the sophomore debaters for the Phi Kappas. The Demosthenian debaters will be chosen tomorrow.

The freshmen in the Phi Kappa contest in the chapel yesterday put up ten contestants for the three places and one alternate. Successful contestants were E. J. Hardin, of Greenville, S. C.; Clarke Howell, Jr., of Atlanta, and H. H. West, of Athens; alternate, C. H. Smith, of Concord.

The Demosthenian freshmen had eight men contesting for the places and the following were those who won the plums: T. N. Hendricks, of Nashville, Ga.; Stephen Mitchell, of Atlanta and L. E. Sweat, of Patterson. The alternate is J. W. Walker, of Patterson.

The sophomore debaters chosen to represent the Phi Kappa Society at the commencement debate, the contest being held yesterday afternoon, were the following, from six contestants: Victor Victor, of Atlanta; LeRoy Michael, of Athens, and Ira Funkenstein, of Athens. The alternate is C. B. McDaniel, of Atlanta.

WILL DEDICATE NEW CHURCH AT JEFFERSON

Jefferson, Ga., March 22.—(Special.) Tomorrow the members of the Christian church will dedicate the beautiful new modern concrete church which is just completed. It would grace a city three times the size of this. It is constructed of the latest style concrete blocks, metal ceiling and metal roof, and is fitted with opera chairs and gas lights.

Rev. John H. Wood, of Winder, will preach the dedicatory sermon at 11 o'clock and Rev. W. A. Chastain, who served as pastor during the erection, will preach at 3 p. m.

The musical program for each service will be the best, no doubt, ever heard here. No other denominations will have services, but will assist in the dedication of this edifice.

PLED GUILTY OF ROBBING HAZELHURST DRUG STORE

Hazlehurst, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Last Sunday night the People's drug store, at this place, was burglarized and about $500 worth of jewelry was taken. The matter was reported to the police, and was kept very quiet. Yesterday the police arrested Oliver Cromwell, of Chicago, and when he was tried in the county court today he entered a plea of guilty, through his attorney, J. R. Grant, and was sentenced to twelve months on the chaingang.

Cromwell implicated Tom Pace, a young man of Hazelhurst, and stated that Pace entered the store while he kept watch on the other side. Pace has not been arrested as yet, as his whereabouts is unknown to the police.

CHICAGO TRAVELING MAN DIES AT ATHENS

Athens, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—The body of George W. Collins, the middle-aged traveling man from Chicago whose death occurred suddenly at the Hotel Georgian, from apoplexy, was this morning sent by express to his home at 3524 Grand boulevard, Chicago, Ill. The funeral and burial will be in that city. He was well known in Georgia.

FAMILIES AND FRIENDS JOIN IN BUYING SEASON TICKETS

The Atlanta Music Festival Association continues to get gratifying reports from the sale of season tickets for the grand opera season of 1912.

Owing to the reduced prices at which the season tickets are being sold, different members of families, or neighbors and friends, are clubbing together in many instances, purchasing season tickets and deciding in various ways upon a division of them for the different performances.

Several of the railroads coming into Atlanta, notably the Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlantic, are advertising grand opera week in their respective territories through posters and flyers, and reports from railroad men indicate a large attendance from every section of the state. Exceptionally low round-trip rates have been put on for grand opera week, and it will prove an exceptional opportunity for a visit to Atlanta. Among some of the round-trip rates offered are the following:

Brunswick, $8.50; Byromville, $4.20; Cordele, $5.30; Douglas, $6.80; Fitzgerald, $6.40; Manchester, $2.45; Montezuma, $4.40; Moultrie, $7.30; Oglethorpe, $4.40; Talbotton, $3.15; Thomasville, $7.65; Tifton, $6.50; Senoia, $1.55; Vienna, $5; Woodbury, $2.20; and Waycross, $8.50. The tickets will be on sale April 21 to 26, good to return until April 30.

INSURANCE OFFICIALS HOLD IMPORTANT MEET

An important conference of southern fire insurance officials was held yesterday in the offices of the Georgia Fire Insurance Company in the Candler building, at which many leading cities were represented.

The general business situation in the south and the prospects for the spring were discussed in detail. Atlanta fire insurance men participated in the conference, and particular stress was laid on the steady growth in the south of the economic principle of patronizing home industries.

Not many years ago, the officers of the various southern companies declared, while addressing the meeting, the south was drained of hundreds of thousands of dollars annually because southern people preferred to patronize northern and eastern fire insurance companies, and many other enterprises in those sections of the country, rather than pay in or invest their money at home, where it would remain in local circulation.

During the past few years, however, according to speakers yesterday, that condition has changed, and one of the principal things on which the present splendid property of the south is built, it was shown, is that people in all walks of life have learned the mutual advantage of the principle of "keeping money at home."

The fire insurance men have a particularly strong evidence of this tendency in the official statistics gathered from the state capitol and other authoritative sources showing that during recent years the southern fire insurance institutions have had a rapid but substantial growth because of the application by property holders of the very principles above outlined.

Nearly a score of the southern fire insurance officers of the various companies were present at the meeting yesterday, which began at 11 o'clock and continued during most of the afternoon. Aside from a general discussion of business conditions, the members made reports on the growth of their several companies, which in most instances showed big gains over the previous year.

YEGGS DYNAMITE BANK AND CARRY OFF $25,000

Cleveland, Ohio, March 22.—According to telephone advices received here, the Bank of Berea, a private institution at Berea, Ohio, 12 miles west of here, was broken into by burglars last night and the safe, said to contain $25,000, blasted open, the burglars escaping with the entire sum.

The robbers broke into an office next door to the bank, drilled through the wall of the office and the wall of the bank, directly into the bank vault. It was necessary to penetrate thirty-five inches of brick and mortar to reach the vault.

JUDGE NOMINATED MAY TAKE BENCH AT ONCE

Americus, Ga., March 22.—(Special.) William M. Harper, whose election to the judgeship of the city court of Americus was assured this afternoon in the consolidation of ballots in yesterday's democratic primary for county officers, may go upon the bench immediately, although the term for which he is elected does not begin until next January.

It is understood that Judge James Hixon, now presiding, will shortly resign the judgeship and Governor Brown will be requested to appoint Judge-elect Harper to the unexpired term of nine months ending in December, this procedure meeting general approval of attorneys and court officials.

In the election yesterday Judge Harper defeated Hon. William Dykes for the judgeship by 70 votes, in a contest in which 1,600 ballots were polled.

HANDSOME RESIDENCE BURNED AT ALBANY

Albany, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Fire last night destroyed the handsome brick dwelling occupied by Sheriff W. G. Edwards, just beyond the western limits of Albany. The sheriff was sick and confined to his bed, and had to be carried out to safety.

The building was valued at $10,000, and insured for half that amount by the Glenn Investment Company, to whom it had recently been sold. The new owners were to take possession Saturday, and much of their furniture had been moved out. Most of the furniture was saved, that destroyed being valued at $1,200.

RAILROAD TRAINMEN WILL ASK FOR INCREASE

Knoxville, Tenn., March 22.—Officials of thirteen railroad systems east of the Mississippi and south of the Ohio rivers, within the next thirty days may be asked for an increase of 15 per cent in wages of employees who are members of the Order of Railway Trainmen and of the Order of Railway Conductors. A circular letter authorized by the southeastern association of these two organizations at a recent meeting in Atlanta, is now being issued to all members of the two brotherhoods. This became known today. A referendum vote will be taken at meetings of subordinate unions, held early in April. The vote will be canvassed in Washington by two representatives from the executive committees of each of the brotherhoods. If a majority favor the demand for an increase it will be formally presented to the thirteen railroads. The Louisville and Nashville railroad is not included, it is stated.

This Is The Year's One Season When The Call Of Style Is Heard By Every Man

By J. R. HAMILTON

A man will wear any old shirt in the Winter time, and in the Summer he will wear no shirt at all if he can help it. His Summer clothes are good enough for Autumn, and he is willing to keep on wearing them till it gets too cold.

But when old Winter turns the calendar and the first warm, perfumed days come creeping in, a man begins to look, for the first time, at his clothes, and before the Spring has traveled very far, he is more eager for style than any woman could be.

For man is only an animal with property rights. And in the animal kingdom the plumage is worn by the male. It is the feathers or the fur of the male that is made to attract, and always those feathers and fur grow bright with color the moment the new Spring comes.

If you want to see a good man become a good animal, just watch him when the first stirring of the new season gets into his veins. Watch him as he looks at his clothes and then at the looking-glass. Watch him as he adjusts his coat and cocks his head when he starts away in the morning. Watch him as he begins to sit up and take notice of new shirts and shoes, of suits and hats and ties.

And from the ages of six to sixty every mother's son of you feels this call.

Well, you, who are reading this paper are a man. And this is the Spring.

So turn to the advertising columns now and look for the styles. Here is where you will find all the latest things from hats to shoes. All the new patterns in shirts and ties, all the new styles in suits and overcoats—everything that will make your looking-glass approve of you is here---here in the advertising columns of this paper you are reading now.

These merchants have been preparing for you for months. They have been shipping things from all over Europe and America. They have gathered the finest and best from every land. And their advertising news in this paper today is a report to you of all the new things they have brought to this city for your comfort and your vanity.

In these days the man who doesn't read the advertising is seldom a well-dressed man.

HETTY GREEN FORSAKES GOTHAM FOR HER OLD FLAT IN HOBOKEN

New York, March 22.—After giving New York what she considered a fair trial, Mrs. Hetty Green has found the metropolis "too dull" and has moved back to a flat in Hoboken, N. J.

The richest woman in the world, whose self-accumulated fortune is generally estimated at $75,000,000, made her home for years in Hoboken in a flat costing $19 a month. She enjoyed the friendship of a large number of neighbors whom she missed greatly after coming to New York to live in a big house near Central park. She has now left the city house to her son, Colonel Edward Green, and moved to a $40 flat in Hoboken, which she has fitted up simply, but expensively.

Colonel Green said today:

"Mother never wanted to live in the city. I got her to come with me in the uptown house last August, and at first she seemed happy. But she soon grew lonesome for the old friends in Hoboken.

"There is nothing in New York life to interest my mother. She never cared for the theater nor would she ever invade society circles. She prefers the simplicity of her apartment and loves to have the old neighbors around in the evening to sit and chat in the good old-fashioned way."

O'MALLEY FACES BRIBERY CHARGE

Maryland House Recommends Case to Attention of Grand Jury.

Annapolis, Md., March 22.—That the charge that the state auditor, John F. O'Malley, offered Delegate William R. Smallwood $2,500 to vote against the state-wide local option bill in the house of delegates has been substantiated to such an extent as to call for grand jury action was the substance of a unanimous report to the house tonight by the committee appointed to investigate the charges.

Three members of the committee are opposed to the local option bill and two favor it.

The committee's report was unanimously adopted by the house and the clerk was directed to transmit the report and a transcript of the testimony to the state's attorney of Anne Arundel county for presentation to the grand jury which will meet next month.

TENNESSEE DEMOCRATS ADOPT HARMONY PLAN

Nashville, Tenn., March 22.—As the combined result of the two conventions here today of democratic politicians and democratic editors of the state a harmony plan was adopted which it is hoped will reunite the discordant elements of the party.

The net result of the meetings was the adoption of a resolution providing for a state convention to be held at Nashville on May 15 for the purpose of nominating a candidate for judge of the supreme court, judge of the court of civil appeals, the nomination of presidential electors, the selection of delegates to the national convention and the selection of a new state committee.

It was further provided that in the event that a majority of the members of the two state executive committees ratify the proposed plan by April 5, that they shall constitute the harmony democratic executive committee to direct party affairs until their successors are named. In the event that a majority of each committee declines to ratify the agreement another conference of democrats is to be held in Nashville on April 12 for the purpose of calling the convention and to effect the reorganization of the party.

SAYS ALDRICH PLAN WOULD STOP PANICS

Chicago, March 22.—Financial panics such as have been experienced in the United States in recent years were described as a national disgrace by David R. Forgan, president of the National City Bank, of Chicago, in an address before the transportation society here last night.

"The Aldrich Central Bank plan," said Mr. Forgan, "would cure the evils of the present financial system and make such panics either impossible or remote possibilities.

"The bankers now are practically unanimous in their support of the plans and members of this association should bring all their influence to bear upon congress to get the proposed legislation enacted into law.

MINE DEATH LIST REACHES SEVENTY

All Men on Pay Roll at McCurtain Are Now Accounted For.

Fort Smith, Ark., March 22.—Official figures given out tonight show that the death list in the Sans Bois Coal Company disaster at McCurtain Wednesday is seventy. Twelve bodies were recovered today, making a total of sixty-four brought out since the explosion. Six bodies are still in the mine. They have been located and will be taken to the top when the debris is cleared away sufficiently to permit their removal.

General Manager W. M. Bushnell, of the Fort Smith and Western Railroad Company, owners of the mine, says the number of recovered bodies, those still in the underground workings and the number rescued alive, twenty-five in all, accounts for all the men on the mine payroll at the time of the explosion.

Today seemed like one long funeral in McCurtain. More than a score of bodies were buried. Early in the forenoon 150 men volunteered to work as grave-diggers. During the afternoon one little procession was scarcely out of sight on its way to the cemetery in the outskirts or the town when another came into sight. In some instances relatives were too overcome to witness the burials. Visiting members of the clergy, both Catholic and Protestant, aided their fellows in performing the last offices of the church and trying to comfort the living.

CHECK INDORSEMENT RESULTS IN ARREST

Oklahoma City, Okla., March 22.—The return of a check indorsed by a justice of the supreme court of Oklahoma led to the arrest here yesterday of E. P. Alford, a fugitive charged with conspiracy to murder Ben Collins, an Indian federal deputy marshal of territorial days in what is now Johnson county, five years ago. Justice Robert Williams indorsed the check without looking at the signature, because as he says, the man's friendly, confident maner and the fact that his face seemed familiar disarmed the jurist of suspicion. When the check was returned the indorser recognized Alford's name and caused his arrest.

TENNESSEEAN KILLED BY UNKNOWN PERSON

Sparta, Tenn., March 22.—D. Morgeson, a resident of Van Buren county, was shot in the head, apparently through a window, and killed yesterday as he ate his dinner. His 17-year-old son, T. J. Morgeson, has been arrested, charged with the deed.

There were no witnesses to the tragedy. Domestic troubles are said to be at the bottom of the affair.

KNOX SAYS TRIP IS SUCCESSFUL

He Advises Washington That Hoped-For Results Have Been Attained.

Washington, March 22.—Secretary Knox today, by wireless from the cruiser Washington, advised the state department that the results which it was hoped would come from his tour of Latin-America had been attained.

World-wide importance has been attached to the secretary's trip, and while the full significance probably has never been officially announced, its prime purpose is said to have been to lay the foundations for closer relations between the United States and Latin-America to anticipate any possible European aggression in commerce or diplomacy.

CARACAS WELCOMES KNOX WITH GREAT RECEPTION

Caracas, Venezuela, March 22.—With the capital in holiday attire, Philander C. Knox, the American secretary of state, arrived at 11:30 o'clock this morning from La Guaira and was accorded the greatest popular welcome given him during his tour of the Latin-American republics.

Today and tomorrow have been declared holidays in honor of Mr. Knox's visit and the city is profusely decorated. When the American secretary reached here, attended by Lino Dute Level, under-secretary of state, he was greeted by Foreign Minister General Manuel Matos and when he and his party entered carriages at the depot thousands of Venezuelans swarmed about the vehicles, waving flags, cheering and giving other indications of friendliness.

On the drive to the handsome residence of the prime minister, General Linares Alcantara, which had been selected for his occupancy during his stay in Caracas, Mr. Knox's eye everywhere met with intertwined flags of the United States and Venezuela, multi-colored buntings, triumphal arches, garlands of flowers and medallions of Washington and Bolivar.

This afternoon Mr. Knox was received by Foreign Minister Matos at Yellow house and later at the Miraflores palace by President Gomez. Afterwards the secretary and his party drove about the capital on a sight-seeing expedition.

Tonight a dinner was given in honor of Mr. Knox by General Matos. The archbishop of Caracas had granted a special dispensation permitting Catholics to disregard the keeping of Lent during the secretary's visit and many of them attended the banquet. After the dinner the minister of the interior received in honor of Mr. Knox and later the American secretary, accompanied by President Gomez and the members of his cabinet, witnessed a fireworks display in the Plaza Bolivar.

SIXTEEN-YEAR-OLD BOY SHOOTS POLICE CHIEF

Russellville, Ky., March 22.—Sixteen-year-old Herman Lovelace wound up a riotous afternoon here today by shooting and probably fatally wounding Russellville's chief of police who went to arrest him. Young Lovelace and Elmer Eaton, an 18-year-old companion, had quarreled in the street and when Eaton hurled a stick at Lovelace, it is said, the latter drew a revolver from his pocket and fired, the bullet striking Eaton in the forehead, inflicting a serious wound.

Lovelace ran home and got a gun and waited. As Police Chief John Cleavenger approached him the boy fired at close range and Cleavenger fell with a bullet in his body. The boy offered no resistance when other officers went after him.

LITERALLY COUGHED UP MONEY HE HAD STOLEN

Nashua, N. H., March 22.—An emetic administered hypodermically to Frederick Tupper today netted $15 in bills which Tupper is charged with having stolen from John Hall, a lumberman. After the two men had hired a room in a lodging house, Hall accused Tupper of taking his money. At the police station Tupper was seen to swallow something. A physician injected a drug under the skin of Tupper's arm and the prisoner soon began to cough up money, the police say. First came a $5 bank note and then a $10 yellow back. The police will use the bills as evidence against him.

News Item---

A professor of Northwestern University has announced a theory that cold feet cause many to fail. He particularly finds this condition among losing gamblers, defeated pugilists, and unsuccessful suitors. He finds that the blood rushes from the feet as courage leaves the heart.

We are led to believe there is a great deal in this idea because of the fact that we have from the start been an unqualified success. Our Spring Suits from Hart Schaffner & Marx and Rogers Peet Co. are undoubtedly the handsomest style-clothes we've ever handled. Their prices and their quality are sure winners for our success this season.

STUDENT IS HELD FOR ABDUCTING YOUNG BRIDE

Greensboro, N. C., March 22.—The police are tonight making diligent search for Mrs. O. L. Wombaugh, a pretty 19-year-old bride of six months, and for whose alleged abduction Boyd H. Sing, of Florence, S. C., was arrested early this morning. Sing, who is a student at Oak Ridge Institute, is being held tonight in default of $2,000 bail. The authorities have good cause to believe that Mrs. Wombaugh is in Greensboro, where, it is alleged by relatives, she was brought from Oak Ridge Wednesday night.

Mrs. Wombaugh is of a prominent family, strikingly pretty, and was a belle of the county prior to her marriage last fall. She is a niece of one of the principals of Oak Ridge Institute and had been on a visit at the school, the acquaintance between she and Sing dating from the beginning of this visit. Nothing unusual, however, was noted about their relations. Both left the school Wednesday night, Mrs. Wombaugh stating to her host that she was to meet her husband here and Sing asking permission to go to Winston on urgent business

ALLEGED FREIGHT RATE EVASION IS PROBED

New Orleans, March 22.—The United States grand jury today devoted several hours to investigating matters pertaining to a recent indictment of the American Chicle Company on the charge of obtaining lower rates from the Texas and Pacific railroad on goods shipped to Texas by undervaluation of shipments. District Attorney C. R. Beattie and Major Brady, an interstate commerce commission representative, have been preparing evidence for several days. Several officials of the railroad were questioned by the grand jury today.

J. L. M. Neill Dies.

Hot Springs, Ark., March 22.—John L. M. Neill, of Helena, Mont., publisher of The Independent, died here today of diabetic coma. He was United States surveyor general for Montana, appointed by President Cleveland, and at one time was a member of the national democratic committee. The body was sent to Helena tonight.

CRAWFORD GIRL'S DEFENSE BEGINS

State Yesterday Afternoon Finished Evidence in New Orleans Case.

New Orleans, March 22.—The attorneys for the defense of Annie Crawford will begin their case as soon as court convenes tomorrow morning. What their line of defense will be has been kept secret. The defense did not summon a witness until this morning and attempts were made to keep the names of these witnesses secret.

Lawyers following the trial say the defense has two broad lines open. One that Elise Crawford committed suicide or that Annie Crawford poisoned her sister accidentally.

Two druggists have been summoned as witnesses; also Annie Crawford's married sister, Mrs. Edward Lee, of Port Arthur, Texas, and several other persons who knew both Elise and the accused.

When court convened at 3 o'clock this afternoon the defense announced that more time in which to prepare the defense was necessary and adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

Annie Crawford smiled for the first time since she has been on trial when her dead sister's former conduct was brought from the unwilling lips of her aunt, Mrs. Robert Crawford, who admitted reluctantly that Elise had given birth to a child six years before her death, and that she thought when she became sick the second time that she was once more in a delicate condition.

Mrs. Crawford was pressed hard by the defense to say whether she had not told Annie she would have done away with the child had she been permitted. Mrs. Crawford denied she had made this statement.

"Annie," she said, "once told me that it would have been a great deal better if Elise had died when she first became a mother."

SENATOR CHARGED WITH ALTERING ENROLLED BILL

Jackson, Miss., March 22.—State Senator A. W. Bond, a prominent member of the state legislature from Wiggins county, was arrested here late today on a charge of altering an enrolled bill that had been passed by the legislature authorizing the creation of the new county of Stone, with the county seat at Wiggins, the home of the senator, in the southern part of the state.

S. R. McKisson, who is connected with an abstract title company here, also was placed under arrest. It is charged that he made the alteration under the direction of the senator. Both were released on bail of $1,500 each until the meeting of the grand jury in June.

The effect of the alteration in the bill, it is claimed, would have been to annul a recent election in the district occupied by the new county, a majority favoring its creation.

Both Senator Bond and Mr. McKisson protest their innocence.

REPUBLICANS PRESENT BILL ON WOOL SCHEDULE

Washington, March 22.—Republican members of the ways and means committee today introduced a minority bill revising the woolen schedule of the tariff law in accordance with their interpretation of the report of the tariff board.

The bill would reduce the duties on wool and manufactures of wool about 40 per cent. It would reclassify the grades of wool according to the recommendation of the tariff board, and duties would be made specific, as in the present Payne-Aldrich act.

Under the bill offered today the equivalent ad valorem duty would be about 35 per cent on raw wool as compared with 20 per cent in the Underwood bill, which was reported by the ways and means committee yesterday.

Springtime Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Speer will entertain at a "springtime' dinner" next Thursday evening at their home on Peachtree road. The guests will include twenty-four of the debutante set, and the event will be the first in a series of dinner and luncheons.

To Miss Ladson.

In compliment to Miss Agnes Ladson, whose marriage to Mr. Charles A. Dana, of New York, will be a brilliant event of April 11, Mrs. Cobb Caldwell will entertain at luncheon April 3; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Witham will entertain at dinner; Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Cooney will give an evening party, and Mrs. Edwin F. Johnson's luncheon will be next Thursday.

Dinner Party.

Mr. Sanders McDaniel entertained at dinner last night at the Georgian Terrace in compliment to Miss Flournoy Hopkins, of New York.

The party included Miss Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Hopkins, Miss Frances Newman and Mr. Brutus Clay, and they were seated at a prettily appointed table in the Terrace dining room. The centerpiece was a basket of Easter lilies and jonquils, and all the color details were yellow.

To Miss White.

Miss Annie Mays Patterson will give a matinee party today at the Forsyth in compliment to Miss Lorena White, the guests to include Miss White's wedding attendants.

Drawing Room Recital.

A beautiful occasion yesterday was the drawing room recital by Mrs. Jessie Eldridge Southwick of Boston, at the home of Mrs. Frank M. Inman.

The nucleus of the audience of one hundred and twenty-five was the Browning Club, which is led by Mrs. Merrill Hutchinson, and the tickets were sold to their friends.

Mrs. Southwick's theme was Percy Mackaye's "Jeanne D'Arc" and her interpretation was declared to be an exquisite one. She held her hearers' intense interest, both by her art and her personality, and they are anticipating as a similar treat tonight Huckel's "Lohengrin" at the Woodberry school.

To Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Holliday entertained informally at dinner last night at the Georgian Terrace in compliment to Mrs. F. R. Perkins and the Misses Perkins, of Chicago.

To Mrs. Keenan.

Mrs. Frank L. Stanton will entertain a party of six informally at tea this afternoon in compliment to Mrs. Keenan, of Columbia, S. C., the guest of Mrs. J. T. Daniel, the tea to follow an automobile ride.

Lecture-Recital.

The lecture recital of Mrs. Jessie Eldridge Southwick this evening at Miss Woodberry's school promises a program of great beauty of subject and dramatic expression. The drama of "Lohengrin," so familiar to most as an opera, is written by Oliver Huckel, and in spirit and expression is noble and true. Mrs. Southwick is especially great in her interpretation of such authors, in voice and action, and true sympathy.

The reading is open to the public, and begins at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Southwick comes among friends in Atlanta, where she has pupils of the Emerson College of Oratory, and former co-workers, and where she has been heard before, having read "Jean D'Arc" at Miss Woodberry's school year before last. She will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Hutchinson while in the city.

Mrs. Ed A. Pierce Entertains.

Mrs. Ed A. Pierce entertained informally at bridge yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. D. W. Geter, of Macon, the guest of Mrs. T. J. Butler. Those present were Miss Ethel Briggs, of Valdosta, Mrs. T. K. Johnson, Mrs. W. H. Burkhalter, Mrs. Dr. Pattillo, Mrs. S. C. Prim, Mrs. C. B. Pepper, Mrs. G. W. Geter and Mrs. T. J. Butler. The first prize was a beautiful hand-painted china plate, the consolation prize a handsome hand-made lace handkerchief, and the guest prize silk stockings. The refreshments consisted of white and pink ices and cakes, the color scheme being carried out in white and pink carnations.

To College Set.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Austin entertained delightfully last night a congenial company of fifty young people. The special guests were Mr. Austin's class of Tech students at St. Mark's Sunday school, and Mrs. Elizabeth Winship Bates' class of young girls, and the feature of the evening's amusement was a clever surprise, conceived and executed by the boys, which related to happy incidents and personalities in this congenial college set.

The house was spring-like with yellow blooms, a profusion of jonquils filling vases everywhere, and a flowering yellow vine trailing from picturesque hanging baskets.

A dainty supper was served and the confection table in the dining room was artistic in yellow, the centerpiece a bowl of jonquils on a silver mirror.

Mrs. Austin was becomingly gowned in black lace over white satin, and Mrs. W. H. Austin, of South Carolina, wore black satin. Mrs. Bates wore white olga crepe embroidered.

To School Girls.

Miss Cora McCord Brown, who is home from Lucy Cobb for the week-end, entertained informally at the mansion last night in compliment to a group of her schoolmates, Miss Emma Jordan, Miss Goline Campbell, Miss Lucile Peacock, Miss Fay Dobbs, Miss Ethel Scarborough, Miss Mabel Pearce, of Columbus.

Miss Dobbs will be their hostess at luncheon today and afterwards they will form a matinee party at the Forsyth.

The Cooking School.

Cooking school tickets, which are going fast, are on sale today at Chamberlin-Johnson-DuBose Company's department store in the tea room and at 117 Whitehall street.

The season tickets are $1 each and entitles the holder to all six of the lectures and demonstrations next week at the old Capital City Club building by Mrs. Gilchrist Strong, an expert on domestic science, who made such a splendid impression on Atlanta women last year.

Y. W. C. A. Notes.

To Dr. and Mrs. Broughton.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Awtry gave a pretty dinner of eight covers last night in compliment to Dr. and Mrs. Len G. Broughton, this event one of a series of farewell entertainments for Dr. and Mrs. Broughton before they leave for England.

The table decorations were in pink roses and all the color details were in pink.

Brenau Notes.

The Orpheus Society gave a students' recital Monday night. The different numbers were well rendered by the girls who took part in the program.

Mrs. Southwick, of the Emerson School of Oratory, gave a most delightful reading, "Lohengrin," in the auditorium Thursday night.

Dr. H. J. Pearce gave a banquet to the members of the Phi Beta Sigma Sorority in the college dining hall Wednesday night. The room was beautifully decorated in spring flowers and an elaborate course luncheon was served.

Dr. Pearce was toastmaster of the occasion and several of the members when called upon gave appropriate toasts. Miss Lenore Jones, president of the society, gave a toast, "To Our New Members." Miss Leta Coleman responded to this. Miss Sallie Evans, "To the Faculty;" Miss Erin Holder, "To Brenau." The members of the literary faculty were present and were called upon to make impromptu talks.

The solemn and impressive initiation took place just before the banquet, when the new members took the vows and were invested with robes.

The Phi Beta Sigma Society is an honorary literary sorority and the members are elected by the literary faculty from the students who have the best records in the junior and senior classes.

The members of the sorority are Misses Berta Baldwin, Lessie Covington, Sally Evans, Ruth Elgin, Lenore Jones, Phoebe Laing, Erin Holder, Irene Redding, who were elected in 1910. The new members are Misses Edna Boyd, Magnolia Bostwick, Leta Coleman, Carol Dean and Octavia Hunter.

Mrs. DuPre Entertains.

In compliment to Miss Jennie Hutchins, a bride-elect, Mrs. John DuPre gave an enjoyable bridge party yesterday morning, and after the game there was a dainty luncheon. The decorations were an effective use of jonquils and ferns, the scores were hand-painted in jonquils, and the ices were yellow and white.

Miss Emma Kate Amorous and Miss Ruth Stallings won the prizes, silk stockings and a lace handkerchief, and the guest of honor was presented an embroidered towel.

Mrs. DuPre was becomingly gowned in blue satin veiled with black chiffon, and the pretty bride-elect wore a white serge suit with a white hemp hat trimmed with an aigrette.

The guests were. Miss Emily Winship, Miss Allene Gentry, Miss Aurelia Speer, Miss Mary Helen Moody, Miss Sarah Rawson, Miss Carolyn King, Miss Laura Cowles, Miss Helen Thorn, Miss Isabel Kuhrt, Miss Jennie D. Harris, Miss Emma Kate Amorous, Miss Ruth Stalling, Miss Mildred Fort, Miss Bessie Brady, Miss Sarah Jackson, Mrs. Forrest Adair, Jr., Mrs. Shirley Brooks, Mrs. Kenneth Goode King.

"Queen Esther" at Educational Alliance.

The popular play, "Queen Esther," that was presented at Cable Hall last April to a large audience, will be presented at the Jewish Educational Alliance on Sunday evening, March 24, at 8 p. m.

This play takes its name from an important event in the Jewish history, which causes the celebration of their holiday, "Purim," which feast they have just celebrated.

The play and music have been revised and elaborated and the popular melodies that were enjoyed so much by the audience last year will be repeated on Sunday evening. The play is being directed by Dr. Alex S. Kleinfeld, and a successful performance is assured.

The cast is as follows:

Queen Esther—Miss Rose Goldberg.
King Ahasuerus—Mr. Dave Coleman.
Queen Vashti, deposed—Miss Dora Elson.
Charborni, king's counselor—Mr. Moses N. Kaplan.
Haman, king's minister—Mr. May Sugarman.
Zeresh, Haman's wife—Miss Francis Reisman.
Maid to Zeresh—Miss Annie Reisman.
Jester—Mr. Percy Rosenberg.
Mordecai—Mr. Charlie Pearl.
Herald—Mr. Sam Schlesinger.
Pilgrim—Mr. O. Gershon.
Flower Girl—Miss Ruby Harris.
Maidens—Annie Goldstein, Ruth Litchenstein, Ethel Sinko, Ida Ross, Esther Zaban.
Persians, Couriers, Pilgrims, Guards, Scribe, etc.

Morning Bridge.

Mrs. Joseph Regenstein gave a pretty card party of four tables Thursday morning and bridge was followed by a delicious luncheon. The house had a tasteful decoration in ferns and jonquils.

Mrs. Stallings won the first prize, silk stockings, and Mrs. W. E. Foster the consolation, a box of stationery.

Athletic Club Dance.

An informal dance will be held at the Atlanta Athletic Club's city club house tonight, the hosts to be members of the club, and their guests a bright company of young women.

To Miss Hutchins.

Miss Marion Foster will entertain at bridge next Friday afternoon in compliment to Miss Jennie Hutchins.

Miss Parks to Entertain.

Miss Alline Parks entertains sixteen guests at bridge this afternoon at her home on Forrest avenue in compliment to her guest, Miss Louise Pickard, of Fort Wayne, Ind.

To Mrs. Carhart.

Mrs. James Dunham Carhart, of Nashville, the guest of Mrs. William Beavers Carhart, was the guest of honor at a tea at the Georgian Terrace Wednesday afternoon.

Matinee Party.

Mrs. Burrell Wilkerson entertained at a matinee party yesterday afternoon at the Atlanta in compliment to Mrs. Walter Keenan, of Columbia, S. C. The party included Mrs. Keenan, Mrs. Frank Wilkerson, Mrs. J. T. Daniel and Mrs. Burrell Wilkerson.

A Coming Violinist.

Miss Jean Taylor, violinist, of Tennessee, is in Atlanta on her way to south Georgia and Florida.

Miss Taylor is visiting her family in America after several years of study abroad with some of the famous masters. She is a pupil of Witek, Thibaud and Ysaye, and her playing is described as broad and masterly. She will debut next winter in Vienna and probably tour America afterwards. She comes of distinguished family in Tennessee and is a grand-daughter of the late Hopkins Lacey Turney, United States senator, of Tennessee, and also niece of the late ex-chief justice and ex-governor, Peter Turney, of Tennessee.

Mexican Artist in Concert.

Senor Jose Conrado Tovar, who arrived this week from Mexico, will appear in concert for the first time in the United States on Sunday evening at the Georgian Terrace.

He is a concert pianist, only 18 years old, his education secured in Mexico and Europe, and already he is known in Mexico City as the Beethoven of his time. He is a brother of Manuel Tovar, violinist and leader of the orchestra at the Terrace, and his first concert in this country will be given in Atlanta out of compliment to his brother.

The occasion will be one of artistic and social interest.

Domino Party.

An enjoyable occasion yesterday was the 42 party given by Mrs. C. A. Rauschenberg in compliment to Miss Lorena White, a popular bride-elect.

Sixteen guests played the game, and afterwards a few other ladies joined them for tea.

The house had an effective decoration in pink carnations, roses and jonquils, and the prizes were a sewing apron and a boudoir cap.

Mrs. Rauschenberg was becomingly gowned in white, and Miss White wore black crepe de chine with a black picture hat.

SOCIAL ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Conway left yesterday for Hot Springs, Va.

BEST DENTAL WORK AT MODERATE PRICES

There is no need, these days, to pay exorbitant prices for really high-quality dental work, or to risk one's teeth and health to incompetent dentists on account of their low prices. The Atlanta Dental Parlors, corner Peachtree and Decatur streets, entrance 10½ Peachtree, are doing the very best dental work at prices low enough to suit the most modest purse.

FAREWELL SERVICE TO DR. BROUGHTON

Many Prominent Atlantans Will Do Honor to Distinguished Pastor.

The program for the farewell service to Dr. Len G. Broughton, to be held Sunday night at the Baptist Tabernacle, will provide a striking and impressive ceremony in honor of the retiring pastor on the eve of his departure from Atlanta, the scene of so large a part of his public activities, for London, England.

S. C. Callaway, chairman of the board of deacons of the church, will be master of ceremonies. Seated with him on the platform will be the entire deaconate, or board of deacons. In addition, the following men will take their places there, and will speak briefly in farewell to Dr. Broughton:

John J. Eagan, H. A. Etheridge, W. S. Witham, R. F. Maddox, John Temple Graves, Marion M. Jackson, Clark Howell, George M. Brown, Rev. John E. White, Rev. John F. Purser, Rev. C. W. Daniels, Rev. W. B. Riley, Rev. W. R. Owen, Rev. R. O. Flinn, Rev. M. J. Cofer, Rev. J. W. Ham and Rev. Robert Stuart MacArthur, supply pastor of the church.

Dr. Broughton will speak in farewell to the congregation and his friends in Atlanta.

CHIEF JUSTICE OLSEN MAKES ADDRESS TODAY

Chief Justice Harry Olson, of the municipal court of Chicago, will deliver an address on municipal court reform and reform in judicial procedure this afternoon at 3 o'clock in the council chamber at the city hall. He was invited by the Atlanta Bar Association to make the address and not only that body, but also a number of other citizens of Atlanta will be his audience.

Judge Olson is one of the most prominent jurists in the state of Illinois, and as chief justice of the municipal court, which was the pioneer court of its kind in the United States, has done much to bring about judicial reform in Chicago. The system at which he is the head has been favorably considered by cities throughout the country.

BIG GRIFFIN MILLS WILL START UP SOON

Griffin, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—The Boyd-Mangham cotton mills, which have been closed down for several months, are soon to begin operation again.

Clyde King, of Atlanta, president of the Georgia Cotton Mills Company, which was recently organized and which company purchased the Boyd-Mangham, Soalding and Central mills, is now in New York arranging for the sale of the goods to be manufactured by this mill. He is accompanied by Lewis H. Beck, of this city, superintendent of the mill since it was placed in bankruptcy proceedings several months ago, who will consult and confer with him for the sale of the products of the mill.

The Spalding mill will not start up until extensive improvements can be made, and the Central mill will not begin operation until the Georgia Power Company, from which power will be secured, can extend its lines from Atlanta to Griffin. The starting up of these mills at an early date means much for Griffin, as it will bring hundreds of people to the city and will enliven manufacturing and commercial lines.

TEACHERS OF THREE COUNTIES WILL ATTEND

Tifton, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Probably one hundred public school teachers of the counties of Turner, Tift and Worth will be the guests of Tifton for educational week, which begins with the tri-county teachers' institute on Monday, April 1, and continues through the 4th and 5th, when the High School Association of the second congressional district holds its annual meeting here, at which it is estimated there will be an attendance of over 400.

Some of the best educational talent of the state will be furnished by State Superintendent Brittain for the tri-county teachers' institute and he himself will be present. There will be three sessions daily and lectures by experts at each. There are over 100 teachers in the three counties and the attendance is compulsory.

J. A. PERRY PURCHASES THE LAGRANGE REPORTER

LaGrange, Ga., March 21.—(Special.) J. A. Perry, secretary of the Manchester Development Company, has purchased The LaGrange Reporter and will continue the publication of the paper in conjunction with L. H. Jenkins. The property was bought from the Fuller E. Callaway Company, and will be extensively improved under the new management. The paper has been in existence since 1842.

OVERCOATS WILL BE HANDY TODAY

Weather Will Be Uncomfortably Chilly, But Not Expected to Last.

Overcoats and closed car windows will be the order of the day in Atlanta this morning, for the thermometer should show a mark near the freezing point if the weather man spoke truly Friday afternoon.

For the first time since Thursday of last week the weather will be uncomfortably chilly, though it is not expected to last. The big rain which broke many Atlanta records last Friday seemed to bring to Atlanta and leave in its wake a continued spell of delightful weather, and the cold which first became noticeable late Friday afternoon is anything but welcome.

IT'S TIME TO GET A RUSH ON.

In addition to the cold, rain is promised today. It won't be very much, predicts the weather man, but it will come if only to bring true his three-days' prophecy. Luckily, most of it went to the northward, and the sooner the present spell follows suit the better satisfied Atlantans will be. Sunday should be fair and warmer.

"Just eight more days to buy season tickets!" exclaimed the gopher. "That won't do. Here I've been putting it off and putting it off. First thing I know I won't be able to get any. It's me for the grand opera ticket office for the sale of grand opera season tickets ends on April 1.

"I hear that there are several good seats left, but they won't last. Any of you fellows who wish to see it every night and at the same time have good seats had better get busy. Goodbye. I'm going to get mine right now."

"FAMILY NIGHT" HELD AT THE FIRST BAPTIST

The services at the Forst Baptist church last evening were entitled "The Family Night." Mr. Harris opened them with another musical service assisted by the chorus choir.

Dr. Riley's theme was "The Whole Family for God." His text, Genesis vii. 1. At the close of the service eight went forward, making a confession of Christ, and two were received into fellowship with the church.

Four days more of the meetings remain. This afternoon he speaks to women only. Women of all ages are welcome, but the services are especially adapted to the young. His theme will be "The Ideal Sister and Daughter."

On Sunday four services will characterize the evangelist's work. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m.; morning service at 11 a. m. At 3 p. m. Dr. Riley will speak to men only on "Playing the Fool," and at night to a great mass meeting on "Mutual Confession."

AGRICULTURAL EXPERT GETS DATA FOR BULLETIN

Tifton, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Professor Charles H. Lane, assistant in agricultural education, office of experiment stations, United States department of agriculture, Washington, spent several days this week at the Second District Agricultural school, leaving for Douglas today.

Professor Lane is gathering data for a bulletin to be issued by the United States department of agriculture covering the district agricultural schools of Georgia, similar to a recent bulletin covering the district agricultural schools of Wisconsin.

The Wisconsin bulletin gave a review of the work each school was doing, with photographs of the buildings and grounds, and in some instances of the student body.

Congressman Roddenbery interested himself in securing a similar bulletin for Georgia, and some time since wrote the papers in his district that it would soon be issued.

USED MORRIS' TOOLS TO CRACK HIS SAFE

"Well, of all the nerve," remarked G. N. Morris, of the G. N. Morris Furniture Company, 261 Peters street, as he walked into his office at 6 o'clock Friday morning and found his safe broken open and his own tools used by the burglars in the operation.

When the police reached the office they learned that the cracksmen stole $159.64 from the safe. A counterfeit $1 piece and a half dollar with a hole in it were also carried off by the thieves.

"The burglars were probably secreted in the place," Morris explained to the police, and he showed the officers that none of the doors had been pried open from the outside.

The police believe the job to be the work of amateurs.

CHANGE IN PRINCIPAL OF COMMERCE SCHOOLS

Commerce, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—The resignation of Professor L. F. Elrod, superintendent of the public schools of this place, was accepted by the city board of education, at a meeting held last night. Professor Elrod has just been elected county superintendent. The board elected Professor H. H. Bible, superintendent of the public schools of Lavonia, to succeed Mr. Elrod. If Mr. Bible accepts he will take charge at an early date.

14 PASSENGERS HURT ON CANADIAN PACIFIC

Fort William, Ontario, March 22.—Five coaches of the second section of the Vancouver express on the Canadian Pacific railroad left the rails at Jackfish, on the north shore of Lake Superior, last night and rolled down an embankment.

Fourteen passengers were so badly hurt that they are in a hospital at Port Arthur. The train was running slowly, and, coming to a broken rail, the front part passed over without difficulty. Five coaches in the middle broke loose and rolled over.

HOME CAMPAIGN NEARS ITS CLOSE

Plans Are Made to Dispose of Remaining $15,000 Chamber Stock.

Plans to dispose of the $15,000 in stock which yet remains unsold in the new Atlanta Chamber of Commerce building were made at a meeting of the directors, held in the chamber of commerce yesterday morning. Committees were appointed to see 100 business men in the city who have not yet invested in the stock company, and these committees will report at the final meeting of the campaign, which takes place at a luncheon to be held next Tuesday.

A number of citizens requested Friday that stock be allotted them, and this was done. Many are taking the stock because they recognize that it is a solid and permanent investment which will yield a good return, and be at the same time absolutely safe. A number of small investors are taking from $50 to $200 worth of stock, and these are as welcome as the larger subscribers.

It is confidently expected that when the committees report on Tuesday that it will be found that more than the requisite amount has been raised. All the committees are working and all are reporting progress.

NEW ROUTE FOR ROAD ON A VERY LOW GRADE

Athens, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Professor J. C. Koch has just returned from Madison county, where, at the request of the commissioners, he relocated a road for fifteen miles. He relocated the old road so that instead of 8 per cent grades there is less than half of 1 per cent anywhere, and it is sure that the new road will be built. The land-owners have subscribed $3,000, the business men of Athens will give $2,500, and the county commissioners of Madison will appropriate $3,000.

BUSINESS PROPERTY IN LAGRANGE CHANGES HAND

LaGrange, Ga., March 22.—(Special.) A deal has been closed between J. E. Dunson Bros. Company and Dr. I. H. Lane whereby the former acquires a plot of ground 101 feet frontage with 200 feet deep at the corner of Vernon street and South Lewis street, the consideration being around $6,000. J. E. Dunson, president of the company, stated that the plans of the company were not definitely settled as to the disposition of the property, but a building to house the supply, agricultural and other business of the company is expected to be built on the plot of ground. It is among the most valuable business property on the street, and would be a continuation of the business houses on that thoroughfare.

Gray Hair Is Not Compulsory

It is almost pathetic when a woman's hair begins to fade and she realizes that it is turning gray, and yet there is no one to blame but herself for neglecting it, for the hair responds very quickly to the proper care and treatment. The hair turns gray because it has lost vitality, and when you pull out the first few white hairs as they appear you simply enlarge the cells and coarsen your hair, and it will turn gray more quickly than if left alone.

For many years we have handled all of the good hair preparations and we believe there is nothing better to be had anywhere than our Robinnaire Hair Dye. It is not the ordinary vulgar bleach or artificial coloring. We should have named it a Restorative, because it simply restores your hair to its own original color and beautiful, healthy condition, and there is no reason why you should hesitate to use it if your hair is fading and losing its color.

It is our own laboratory product and we guarantee it to be pure and harmless. It has been in use for over a quarter of a century, and we have yet to receive the first complaint, but we can show you hundreds of letters, unsolicited, telling of the wonderful results obtained from it.

No woman need have gray hair undesired, if she will give a little time and care to its treatment. The hair always responds quickly. Robinnaire Hair Dye is easily applied, and it is non-sticky and does not stain either skin or scalp. If you want to see what it will do, get a 25c trial size and use it on a small part of your hair, any back of the ears. You will be surprised and pleased with it. Regular large size 75c. Sent postpaid. Jacobs' Pharmacy, Atlanta.

TRAINMEN MAY MAKE DEMANDS

Vote on Wage Demand Being Taken on Southeastern Railroads.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 22.—Conductors and trainmen on all roads south of the Ohio river and east of the Mississippi in two weeks will conclude a vote on the question of a demand for increased wages and better working hours. W. G. Lee, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, said here today.

He refused to divulge the nature of the demands submitted to the men for ratification. At the conclusion of the vote they will be submitted to the roads.

RESOLUTIONS ON WILEY BLOCKED BY GALLINGER

Washington, March 22.—"The senate has learned with profound regret of the resignation of Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, head of the pure food bureau of the United States government."

Such was the first sentence of a resolution introduced today by Senator Martine, democrat, of New Jersey. He asked for immediate consideration, but Senator Gallinger objected, and the resolution went over after being read. The resolution proceeded:

"We feel that Dr. Wiley's services have been of incalculable value, and take this opportunity to express our confidence in his ability and the splendid service he has rendered this country."

HAS THE MRS. GRACE CASE JONAHED JOHN W. MOORE?

"Is John W. Moore Jonahed?"

This is the question that is asked since the leading lawyer engaged in the defense of Mrs. Eugene H. Grace lost his first case since the Grace tragedy. Moore appeared before Judge Broyles in behalf of Walter Harris, who was adjudged guilty of receiving cigars stolen from a local pharmacy. Harris was bound over to the grand jury.

The cigars Harris stole were branded "O. P. E.," significant because of the similarity to the name "Opie," one of the names Mrs. Grace penned in her signature.

"If there was only an 'I' supplied, the omen would be there," someone suggested.

"Well, I'm the 'I,'" Moore chirped in.

Judge Broyles remarked, when the case of Harris was called, that he did not expect to see Moore before the court so soon.

"I thought you were too busy in the Grace case," the judge said.

Moore plunged into the case with a vengeance. He questioned and cross-questioned the witnesses, and brought out all his cunning in an effort to secure the release of his client, but it seemed that the Jonah was there for keeps, and Judge Broyles gave his decision, which holds Harris until the grand jury acts.

"I hope this luck will not keep up," Moore commented as he was leaving the court room. "If it does I'll have to hunt up a Chinaman and rub him on the head with a lucky stone."

FRANKIE MUST BE GOOD OR STAY IN JAIL AWHILE

Frankie Wilson, a good-looking maid of 18 years, will stay in jail until she makes up her mind to be a good girl. She was fined $10.75 by Recorder Broyles on a charge of fighting and disturbing the peace.

"Frances might behave herself if she wants to, but she can't be good," is the tip Desk Sergeant Lindsey slipped to the sister of the girl when the latter tried to secure her release.

Frankie engaged in a hair-pulling contest with Mrs. Lizzie Middlebrooks, on Main street. She told her opponent what she thought of her in words that wouldn't look good in print, and the pair had it out while scores of boys and women crowded the sidewalk and clapped their hands in glee.

The mother of Frances called at headquarters Friday with a request that she be held a prisoner until Saturday, explaining that it was her desire to learn her a lesson by keeping her in jail.

J. B. HEATH GIVES BOND ON EMBEZZLING CHARGE

J. B. Heath, formerly employed by the Western Union as manager of the branch exchanges in Atlanta, was released on a bond of $5,000 required on the indictment returned against him by the grand jury for embezzling funds from the company. Heath was jailed with Eugene E. Gormaley, clerk, also indicted for alleged defalcations amounting to about $1,500. Gormaley is still in jail and is likely to remain there until his trial.

Heath was turned over to the county authorities late Friday night. He said that the charges against him were false. Gormaley says that Heath was responsible for the loss of money belonging to the company.

Heath was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Plennie Minor. He was employed by the Western Union up to a short while ago, but recently he secured a position as train auditor on one of the railroads running out of Atlanta.

DR. MARY WALKER CAUSES HER ATTENDANT ANXIETY

New York, March 22.—Dr. Mary Walker's steadfast refusal to have any physician attend her during her serious illness brought forth a statement today from Mrs. Nellie B. Van Slingerland, secretary of the Betterment League, who has been almost constantly at the bedside. The statement said Dr. Walker spent a "very bad night," and continues: "As I am nearly collapsed myself with the six sleepless nights and anxious, busy days, I have written two of Dr. Walker's women relatives that someone must come to share the responsibility. Dr. Mary refuses to let anyone but myself and a Japanese servant do anything for her; and the day-and-night vigils are beyond our physical endurance; hence I shall be forced to have assistance from some direction, even though it is against her emphatically expressed wishes, for her own good.

"Dr. Walker's mind is keen and alert as ever, and she is watching her own progress with intelligence and with professional discrimination. Thus far she has proved the power of mind over medicine, as well as matter, I should say."

SEND NOMINATION FOR THE CAMPAIGN

Enter Your Name and We Will Furnish You With All Information.

The revised standings of the contestants and the names of the contestants entered since Thursday will appear in Sunday's edition of The Constitution. There will also appear in this edition a double page ad showing cuts of all cars and other prizes to be given away during this campaign. Do not fail to look over these pages.

It is also to the interest of each contestant to scan the list and see what her present standing is. Furthermore, it is advisable for you to get to work at once and make as good a showing as you possibly can for the next appearance of the standings. Ask each and everyone of your friends to save the coupons for you and you will be surprised how rapidly these votes count up. This campaign is not a popularity campaign and contestants should not depend entirely on their friends in this case, but should make an effort themselves to secure votes both on subscriptions and by collecting the coupons clipped from the paper.

Many of the women in this race have musical talents and are desirous of perfecting their art. The nine Phillips & Crew Company pianos would be very acceptable in a case of this kind. No better opportunity has ever existed for anyone who studies music, teaches music or intends to study it to have an elegant piano in their home. Why spend your time saving a little here and a trifle more there with the object of buying a piano of perhaps a minor grade, when by clipping out the nomination blank in this paper and sending it to the campaign manager of The Constitution you can, by entering in the race, be in line to win one of our pianos and gratify your desire.

Depends On You.

It is entirely up to your hustling ability whether or not you will be winner. The Constitution offers you this opportunity and will be glad to explain any details concerning the campaign that you might wish. If you are holding back subscriptions, we would suggest that you send them at once and we will give you voting ballots for them. These ballots are good and can be voted at any time during the campaign. No candidate is limited as to the territory in which subscriptions may be taken. If you have friends living in another state, who will subscribe, you may secure the votes on their paid in advance subscriptions the same as those of your next door neighbor who takes the paper from you.

News Dealers are Not Affected.

The news dealers or agents in the different towns that handle The Constitution are no way affected by the campaign. They will receive their proper proportion of all subscription moneys, as in the past, only the candidates must make their remittance direct to the campaign department. The Constitution will see that all agents are given proper credit for subscriptions that are secured in their territory.

Do not fail to read Sunday's Constitution, which contains the revised standings of the contestants.

CHARGE PREPOSTEROUS, SAYS FAIR PRISONER

Frivolous, absurd, preposterous. These are but a few of the choice collection of adjectives used by Mrs. A. J. Brown, a woman of elegant manners, to characterize the charges preferred against herself and husband, both held at police barracks as fugitives from justice. Brown was arrested in a pawn shop in Decatur street attempting to dispose of fifteen revolvers. The arrest was made at the request of the authorities of Greenville, Ala. Brown was held Thursday night, and early Friday morning detectives took his wife to headquarters. Both are charged in a warrant with having robbed the store of the Johnson Hardware and Implement Company, at Greenville, Wednesday.

Requisition papers were issued by Governor O'Neal for the return of the two prisoners. W. S. Watson, clerk of the Butler county circuit court, will be in Atlanta Saturday to get the prisoners. Brown is opposed to leaving and has intimated he will make a fight against extradition. His wife is anxious to go back, but says she will stick with her husband. She is a woman of refinement. She has none of the characteristics of a woman hardened in crime. She spoke pleasantly of herself, but declined to tell of her movements since leaving Greenville.

INDIAN GIRL ARRESTED WHEN $10 DISAPPEARS

Charged with the theft of $10 from a negro boy who sought her advice as to whether he would have any luck in a dice game, Annie Adam, a Cherokee Indian maiden of 18 summers, was taken from her palace of mystery, No. 135 Decatur street, by detectives and held at the police barracks in default of bail in the sum of $100. Eddie Harring is the complainant against the teller of fortunes.

He told Detectives Fain and Norris that he had $25 and that he wanted to take a flyer in a dice game to fatten his roll. Someone told Eddie to seek the advice of a fortune teller and he beat it to the Indian girl. She told him that he would have luck if he allowed her to take the money from his pocket, hold it in her hand awhile and put it back after muttering a prayer to the hidden spirits.

Eddie did not take the advice of the fair Annie and wait an hour before taking the money from his pocket, so when he reached the sidewalk he examined the roll and found $10 missing. Straight to the police station he ran with the story of his adventure, and within thirty minutes the Indian girl was arrested on a charge of larceny.

She stayed in jail all night despite the efforts of her tribespeople to get her out on collateral.

MISS PAULINE WELCH TO STAR NEXT SEASON

Pretty Pauline Welch, the 18-year-old miss who is appearing with George Spink at the Forsyth, has scored one of the greatest personal triumphs ever registered by a star at the vaudeville house.

This is not Miss Welch's first visit here. She was a member of the famous George Fawcett company that played the Bijou nine seasons ago. She was then a 9-year-old lassie playing the boy and girl child parts in that organization. She was a great favorite here and in Birmingham, Richmond and Norfolk, and remained with the organization until it was disbanded, and then took up a different field. Her success in musical comedy four years ago attracted the attention of Jesse L. Lasky, the vaudeville promoter, and he put her under contract for a period of five years.

She will play Philadelphia next week and then goes to New York where she has an engagement with her manager to read the play that has been written for her starring tour the coming season. She will play the high-priced theaters with a Lasky company.

COAL COMMITTEE STILL IN SESSION

Strike of 200,000 Bituminous Miners Depends Largely on Its Deliberations.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 22.—Negotiations between the 200,000 miners in the bituminous coal fields of western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois and the operators for an adjustment of wage differences late tonight were postponed until next Tuesday.

Two compromise offers by the operators were voted down by the miners. These offers were:

That the present wage and working scale be continued for two years after its expiration on April 1.

That there be no suspension of the mines on any account.

The miners had asked for a 10 per cent increase in pay and a shortening of working hours. As against this the operators had asked that the wage scale be cut down 10 per cent.

Indications that there would be no immediate settlement were shown in the afternoon, when a subcommittee, composed of eight miners and eight operators, began considering a compromise which they were to report back to the full conference.

The full conference, composed of sixty-four members, for two days had heard the demands of the miners for a 10 per cent increase and a reduction of a day's working hours from eight to seven, with five hours on Saturdays, and had failed to agree.

The whole dispute then had been referred to the subcommittee.

When the subcommittee met the miners renewed their demands. John P. White, president of the United Mine Workers of America, told the committee:

"Conditions are such that the coal miners of this country cannot, with their present pay, live as they ought to live. They are not on a par with other labor, and we will not continue to work after April 1 with our present pay and long working hours. If our demands are granted, we will go right on without a suspension; if they are denied or modified, we will suspend."

The eight operators replied that the demands altogether would cause a 20 per cent increase in the payroll, and that this increase was not warranted by the present earning power of mines.

ONE KILLED IN STRIKE ATTENDING STRIKE

Gulfport, Miss., March 22.—Rioting broke out between union and non-union longshoremen in the negro section of this city today, in which several shots were fired. George Adams was shot and killed by Tom Love in the Gulf and Ship Island railroad yards later, but whether this grew out of labor troubles is not known.

Mayor J. W. Thomas, after a special meeting of the city council and executive committee of the Commercial Union, issued a proclamation urging all citizens not to congregate in the streets and public places. A special committee was named to confer with the sheriff with the object of deputizing twenty-five special officers. Non-union longshoremen were fired upon on their way home late today, but none was hurt.

SHE SHOOTS MAN DOWN AT FUNERAL OF FRIEND

Cleveland, Ohio, March 22.—While attending the funeral of a friend in Calvary cemetery here today, Mrs. Mary McCarthy shot and probably fatally wounded John Gallagher, aged 28. Gallagher fell at the edge of the grave with a bullet in his left breast. Mrs. McCarthy was arrested. Police say she told them that Gallagher had made remarks about her.

GERMANY ANSWERS CHURCHILL'S TALK

New Army and Navy Bills Are Submitted in Unaltered Form.

Berlin, March 22.—Germany's answer to the recent speech of Winston Spencer Churchill, of the British admiralty, is given today by the submission to the federal council of the new army and navy bills in unaltered form.

Details of the measures, according to The Norddeutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, provide for two additional corps in the Prussian army and for minor increases in the Bavarian and Saxon armies.

The naval bill calls for an extra battleship squadron, for which three additional battelships and two cruisers are to be constructed before 1920. The estimated additional cost is $24,250,000 in 1912, $31,756,00 in 1913 and $28,500,000 yearly after that.

The army reforms, which include the creation of two field artillery regiments, one Saxon cavalry regiment one Prussian infantry regiment and fourteen additional third battalions to bring up the strength of all regiments from two to three battalions, and the introduction of machine gun companies in every existing infantry regiment, will increase the peace footing of the army by 29,000 men, excluding officers, noncommissioned officers and other details. The pay of the men also is to be increased. New corps are to be stationed on the French and Russian frontiers.

The naval bill increases the personnel of the navy by 75 officers and 1,600 men annually until 1920 over and above the increase provided for in the existing naval law. This is necessitated by commissioning of the extra three battleships, three large and three small cruisers and the larger crews required to man modern battleships. The bill provides for an increase in the number of submarines and for several dirigible balloons.

Crackers Throw Scare Into Reds

PHILLIES TODAY

Are Beaten By Only One Tally

Whiffs

Would Trade Him.

MIKE MOWREY, the third baseman of the St. Louis Cardinals, is slated for the discard, according to reports from the home of the Bresnahans. Roger is trying to arrange a trade for Mowrey and may succeed. Mike is remembered in this section by the fans who saw him play as a member of the Savannah club the first season of the South Atlantic League.

Give Sam Credit.

JOE BIRMINGHAM is one player who likes to see credit go where it really belongs. The Cleveland outfielder is out with a statement that Sam Crawford is responsible for Ty Cobb's wonderful success more than any one person connected with the game. "If Ty had any other man in the game except Sam Crawford following him in the batting order," says Joe, "he wouldn't outclass all the other men to such an extent. That may sound like the warble of a disgruntled player. It isn't. I acknowledge Cobb's remarkable skill, but I like to see a little credit distributed."

The Right Spirit.

"ATLANTA has again shown her spirit of initiative," says The Chattanooga News, "in organizing a local athletic federation to dispose of all local disputes without the necessity of recourse to the A. A. U. Several cities in the United States have already adopted the plan, which possesses no little merit, and amateur athletics will undoubtedly be greatly benefited thereby. The Cracker town must be given credit for her commendable audacity in violating precedent when the latter has become a detriment and an injurious institution."

Why It Was.

NASHVILLE FANS are beginning to find out why it was that Carlton Molesworth turned loose "Rowdy" Elliott, the peppery little backstop. One of the papers commented the other day on the fact that every Volunteer was out to practice with the exception of Elliott. They see now that "Rowdy" does just about what he pleases when it pleases him to do so. Moley canned him for the same reason.

Signing Good Men.

LOU CASTRO is going after that pennant in the Virginia League with his Portsmouth club. He has signed up Eddie Sabrie, the former Volunteer first sacker; Lee Garvin, the old Shreveport receiver, and Jesse Becker, the former Cracker, for his club. Castro leaves here to go to the Virginia League on April 1. The season starts there April 27.

Is For Sale.

LITTLE ROCK has a grand chance to get back into the Southern League again this season, according to reports from Montgomery. "If anybody offers me $20,000 he can have the Montgomery franchise," Richard Tillis, the owner of the Montgomery club, is quoted as saying. But the Billiken boss denied that he was negotiating with any Little Rock men about its sale.

SOCCER LADS WILL BANQUET

The Atlanta soccer football club will hold a banquet and smoker tonight at Folsom's as a fitting close to a successful season. The affair will start promptly at 7 o'clock.

The local soccer club has put the game on a firm basis in this city and seem destined to make it a southern winter sport. Next season they have several games planned even this far ahead.

NAPS MAY TRAIN AT GULFPORT

Gulfport, Miss., March 22.—Gulfport may be selected as the training camp for the Cleveland Americans next season. H. H. Davis, manager of the Cleveland team; Charles Frank, manager of the New Orleans Southern League team, and Cleveland sport writers are here for an inspection of the quarters and conditions offered. W. M. Driver heads a committee of local citizens who are raising subscriptions for the purpose of making the local baseball park one of the best in the south.

PRISON LEAGUE AT LEAVENWORTH

Leavenworth, Kas., March 22.—Three hundred men expressed a desire to play baseball, when steps were taken at the federal prison here to reorganize the Prison League for the 1912 season yesterday. They drew lots for a tryout.

Ball games between teams on which prisoners only were allowed to play were tried for the first time at the prison last season, and proved a success.

The baseball league is an inducement for the men to keep the rules of the institution, as only model prisoners are allowed to play.

This year, the white men, the negroes and the Indians in the prison will have teams in the league.

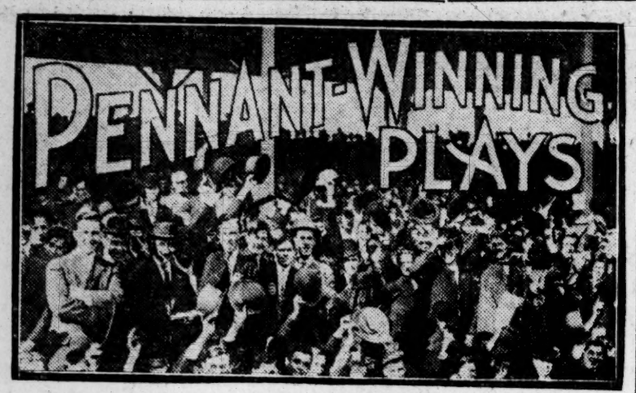

THY DELIVERY.
(Dedicated to Walter Miller.)
BY E. M. CLARY.

The curves you hurl by me, Oh, Walt,
Mean quite a pile of thought to me;
I count them over every one apart,
Thy delivery, thy delivery.

Each one a strike, three strikes I'm out.
My average drops, my feet grow cold,
I watch each ball until it breaks—
And swat!!!
And hit the bloomin' hole.

Oh, peerless Walt, hear my lament.
See how keen anguish fills my soul.
I grind my teeth and then, in very truth,
I darn that hole—Oh, Walt, I darn that hole.

REMARKABLE CLIMAX OF CUBS-SOX WORLD'S SERIES

THIS is a story of a game of thrills. A game replete with incident from bell to bell. The crucial contest of a series that established a record for mechanical skill and cold nerve. A game accompanied by scenes of wild enthusiasm theretofore unequalled. The fifth game of the world's series between Sox and Cubs, October 13, 1906.

No less than seven of the twenty-one men engaged in that memorable struggle burnished brilliant reputations to a still brighter hue that sunny afternoon, and another failed in a bit of strategy which if successful might have won the championship of the world for the team which lost. The attempt failed because of a combined display of skill and brain which has never been excelled, possibly never equaled, in the annals of baseball. The actors in that crowning feature of an exciting day were James Tilden Sheckard, fast, alert, brainy, "Jiggs" Donahue, the frail specter whose acrobatic feats were a cause for daily wonder, and George S. Davis, renowned short fielder.

James Tilden Sheckard.

Of the four preceding games two had been won by each team. Three of those had been won by a lucky break and it was thought that the team which won the third victory would be sure to take the sixth and deciding game. Such was the case. To achieve this result, however, the American league champions threw form to the winds. They, the hitless "wonders" and sure and fast fielders, became for the day heavy sluggers and uncertain fielders, which accounted for the plays which made the assembled thousands fit subjects for the mad house.

The game was played at Cub Park and as the last half of the eighth inning began the score stood 8 to 6 in favor of the White Sox. That no more than eight runs had been scored by the visitors was due to the fact that several near miracles had been performed by the agile young Cubs made desperate, as first Reulbach and then Pfiester had been driven to cover by the rain of base hits from the bats of their rivals. Numerous errors by the Sox and timely drives had enabled the Cubs to keep dangerously close, and, as John Kling came up to open their half of the eighth they were still hopeful. Kling grounded out and Overall struck out. Then Isbell fumbled Sheckard's drive. This was the crisis. Schulte, the only care free person in all that multitude, was next up. Twice during the game he had connected for ringing hits off Walsh, but this time he faced White and his shadowy southpaw curve. The batter connected with the ball as it faded away over the outside corner and dribbled a slow bounder towards short. For the Sox the game was almost lost. For the Cubs a world's pennant was nearly won. Third Baseman Rohe picked up the grounder and made a late, low throw toward first. Davis had also made a play for the ball, leaving third base uncovered. Sheckard noted the opening and without hesitating at second continued to third. At the same instant Davis realized the danger of the situation and, wheeling about, raced with the flying runner for the bag. Far back of first where he had recovered the ball Donahue timed a throw which with marvelous skill Davis caught with one hand and touched the runner, an instant before they reached the base, over which they collided and fell. Davis held the ball. The inning was over. The game was won. Only the last spike that fastened the world's championship flag to the White Sox mast remained to be driven home, and that was an easy task on the following day.

KLAUS-DILLON BATTLE AT FRISCO TODAY ELIMINATES ONE CONTENDER

By James J. Corbett.

Chicago, Ill., March 22.—(Special.)—A very important contest, the result of which will have much bearing on the ultimate possession of the middleweight title, takes place Saturday when Frank Klaus and Jack Dillon meet for twenty rounds at Coffroth's arena in San Francisco. In fact, they attach so much importance to this match in the Golden West that the promoter is billing it as a battle for the middleweight championship of the world.

Probably at no time since the unfortunate ending of the peerless Ketchel has the championship muddle been nearer settlement than at the present time. The legitimate aspirants and runners-up number not more than four and within the next few months I expect to see one of this limited coterie established as undisputed boss of the division.

In addition to Klaus and Dillon (and one of these will very likely be eliminated as a contender Saturday), there are two other "gents" who come pretty close to filling the bill in the matter of championship accomplishments. These are Mike Gibbons, the speed wonder from St. Paul and Eddie McGoorty, the Oshkosh crack-a-jack. Gibbons is to have a trial over the ten-round route in New York next Tuesday evening. He boxes Jack Denning, who has made the best showing of all the clever Mike's opponents in his Gotham battles. I predict a victory for Gibbons and look for a knockout before the ten rounds, notwithstanding that several newspapers gave Denning credit for having the best of it the last time.

I watched the men carefully on the occasion of their former meeting, and while Denning gave a good account of himself, and probably boxed better than at any other time in his career, Gibbons did not extend himself until near the finish. This was due to palpable lack of condition and not to any desire to permit his opponent to "stay" the limit.

Rather it behooved him to husband his strength as much as possible during the early rounds. Gibbons later on explained that the severe winter weather of his northern home had interfered with training operations and that when he arrived in New York there was not sufficient time to prepare properly. As Mike is an unusually level-headed young man, he would not take unnecessary chances during the contest, and it was not until the last round or two that he cut loose his bewildering array of straight jabs, hooks and uppercuts. What he showed then is enough for me to pick him as an easy winner over Denning next Tuesday.

Jim Coffroth, who is trying to corral all the middleweight stars, advises me that Eddie McGoorty has been matched to meet the winner of today's Klaus-Dillon bout, and that he hopes to obtain Gibbons' consent to visit the coast to participate in the finals of the championship tourney he is promoting. As I said in this column recently I shall not be surprised if McGoorty and Gibbons are the pair who will eventually do battle for the title.

KENNA, "POET-PITCHER," DIES OF HEART TROUBLE

Washington, March 22.—Edward B. Kenna, once editor of the Charlestown, W. Va., Gazette, a pitcher for the Louisville, Denver and other professional baseball clubs, and known generally as "the poet-pitcher," died at Grant, Fla., of heart trouble today, according to a dispatch received by his uncle, Senator Chilton. Kenna was a son of the late United States Senator John E. Kenna.

Kenna is a brother of "Jack" Kenna, a Cracker for several weeks during the spring of 1909. The Atlanta tryout was later released to the Chattanooga Sally League club, and finished the season there. Last spring he coached the Sewance university nine.

TYRUS COBB WILL PLAY WITH BUFFALO SATURDAY

Athens, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Bison Beef and Boston Beans will be the baseball fare in Augusta Saturday when George Stallings carries his Buffalo team from the training camp here to meet the Boston club for a game.

The following Buffalo players will leave Saturday morning: Schang and Mitchell, catchers; Beebee, Brockett, Merritt and Stroud, pitchers; Williams, second base; Turner, third base; Pugh, shortstop; McCabe and "Ty" Cobb (borrowed for the date in his home town); Scherm, center field; Gilmore, left field; Murray, center field, and Anderson, utility.

ATHLETICS GET THREE HOME RUNS IN GAME

Galveston, Texas, March 22.—The Philadelphia American team today defeated the Galveston, Texas League, team, 12 to 5, in a game marked by heavy hitting. Seventeen hits were recorded for Philadelphia, and fourteen for Galveston. "Home-Run" Baker upheld his reputation by placing the ball over the right field fence in the fifth inning, with two men on bases.

Home runs were also made by Murphy and Barry, both of whom hit over the left field fence.

BRESNAHAN TAKES HIS CLUB BACK TO ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, March 22.—Roger Bresnahan, manager of the St. Louis National League club, and his squad of baseball players arrived here today from Jackson, Miss., and will complete their training on home grounds.

Sox Now at San Antonio.

San Antonio, Texas, March 22.—Headquarters of the Chicago Americans were transferred from Waco to their new training campat San Antonio today, when Manager Callahan and Acting Secretary Louis Comiskey arrived. The Americans will be here until March 29, and play a series of games with San Antonio, Texas League team.

YANKEES' VETS PLAY GEORGIA

Team Goes to Athens Today. Colts Play Rochester at Anniston.

Manager Harry Wolverton will pilot his New York American regulars to Athens today for a game with the University of Georgia club headed by Coach Frank Anderson. Tyrus Raymond Cobb, the sensational Georgian, will umpire the battle.

While the regulars are playing in Athens, the colts will go to Anniston for a game with John Ganzel's Rochester club, three-time pennant winners in the Eastern League.

HEAVIES MEET AT GATE CITY

Al Kubiak, the big giant who so easily disposed of Soldier Delaney upon his last visit to Atlanta, will be in our midst again next week. He will meet Jumbo Wells in a ten-ound bout at the Gate City Athletic Club Tuesday evening, this mixup being one of the four star matches arranged for the fighting fans.

Both boys are giants in statue, good boxers and most willing mixers. It takes plenty of hitting to please Atlantans, and that is just what is down for Tuesday's mill. When he so easily disposed of Delaney here some three weeks ago, Kubiak demonstrated his mixing qualities, and these will again be right in evidence Tuesday evening, with a more willing opponent in Wells than was seen in Delaney.

Battling Larry Ryan and Red Ames will get together for eight fast rounds in the other main card of the evening. Ryan has fought hundreds of battles and, matched against a boy of his class, promises to show something. Ames has been boxing the best boys in this section for some months past and all reports show him to be a clever lad with the mits.

Spider Britt and Mayer Price will move against each other in a four-round affair, with Young Sam Langford and Arthur Bridges, colored, hammering each other in another four-round affair. All are good preliminary boys, and will prove a good curtain raiser to the two main events booked.

JOHN FLANAGAN NOT TO COMPETE

New York, March 22.—A prominent absentee from the Olympic games this year will be John J. Flanagan, who won the hammer-throw at Paris in 1900, St. Louis in 1904 and London in 1908. Although the veteran has been throwing as well as ever, he will not be able to go to Stockholm on account of the death of his father, which occurred recently at Kilmallock, County Limerick, Ireland. An old-time weight-thrower, Michael Flanagan, was one of the best-known and most popular men in Ireland.

BAN JOHNSON'S MOTHER DEAD

Cincinnati, March 22.—Mrs. Eunice C. Johnson, mother of B. B. Johnson, of Chicago, president of the American Baseball League and member of the national basebal commission, died at her home here today. She was 83 years old.

Aggies Win.

Clarkesville, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—The Ninth District Aggies defeated Piedmont college at Demorest by the close score of 8 to 7, yesterday.

Piedmont scored four runs in the first inning and three in the ninth. Aggies scored two in the second and six in the sixth, thereby winning.

The features of the game were the fielding of Carpenter and Westbrook and the batting of Rucker and Carpenter.

Batteries—Aggies, Rucker and Swilling; Piedmont, Luffman and Luffman.

Lightweights Draw.

Prince Rupert, British Columbia, March 22.—Joe Bayley, of Victoria, and Pat Scott, of Seattle, lightweights, fought a fast twenty-round draw here last night.

THEATERS

"The Third Degree."
(At the Lyric.)

This afternoon and tonight's performances will close the present engagement of "The Third Degree," which has been pleasing large audiences all week at the Lyric. Miss Grace Lord, who has the leading role, heads a company of unusual excellence, and has made many friends during her stay here. The matinee this afternoon will doubtless be one of the largest in point of attendance of the entire season.

"A Lucky Hoodoo."
(At the Lyric.)

A genuine spiritualistic cabinet is carried by Billy B. Van this season in his production of "A Lucky Hoodoo." It is employed in the second act where the fortune-telling and palm reading parlors of "Madam Holdemdigits" are shown.

The cabinet is precisely the same as those employed by professional spiritualistic mediums. There are also ghosts of the departed, grinning skeletons, a wishing crystal, dream book and magic potions, besides the apparatus used by many present-day mediums.

Mr. Van comes to the Lyric theater next Monday with his new musical comedy.

"Polly of the Circus."
(At the Atlanta.)

In "Polly of the Circus," with Miss Ida St. Leon in the leading role, Frederick Thompson has given to the stage a play that will live for many years. One of the many features of this production are the realistic circus scenes, with the horses, dogs, ponies, clowns, acrobats, bareback riders, aerial acts, and all on the stage of a theater which makes it all the more wonderful. This play will be seen at the Atlanta Monday and Tuesday with a Tuesday matinee. This is the same play that was seen at the Liberty theater, New York city, for one solid year to record-breaking business. Seats are now selling.

Viola Allen.
(At the Grand.)

The advance sale for Miss Viola Allen's engagement on Monday and Tuesday has increased steadily since the sale opened Thursday morning and as the engagement approaches the demand increases. Miss Allen is no stranger in Atlanta, having appeared here at different times as the star in the great Shakespearean comedy, "Twelfth Night," also in "The Christian," and last season scored a great success in "The White Sister." "The Herfords," the title of Miss Allen's new play, is a play that grips an audience with its up-to-dateness and human interest; especially does it appeal to women on account of the strong scene between mother (played by Miss Allen) and daughter, in the third act.

Keith Vaudeville.
(At the Forsyth.)

This week at the Forsyth has been full of real pleasing surprises—all these sort of things added to the interest created by the appearance of Bud Fisher, and thereby establishing an attendance record. One of the genuine surprises of the week was the success and popular success at that of pretty little Pauline Welch, the singing comedienne. She has made enough friends in Atlanta to make her a welcome visitor when she returns again. For next week the bill surely appears strong. The headline attraction will be Paul Armstrong's immensely successful and really powerful play, "The Romance of the Underworld." There are actually twenty-one people in the act.

CRACKERS POUND TWO REGULAR CINCINNATI PITCHERS FIERCELY LOSING GAME BY ONLY ONE RUN

The Crackers threw a frightful scare into Hank O'Day's Reds Friday afternoon, when they battled them to a 7 to 6 count, with the Redlanders on the long end, outhitting them, but being defeated owing to the wildness of the local twirlers.

O'Day handled the indicator and his bell-like voice could be heard all over the park. He gave entire satisfaction to both sides, and there was not a single kick from either side during the entire nine innings.

The result of Friday's game was pleasing from a local standpoint, as it proved that the club is not a weak one, as some fans thought after Thursday's game. With good pitching, which, after all, is half of baseball, the Crackers presented a very formidable line-up. It certainly looks like a hard-hitting club.

Quite a number of fans braved the cold weather to witness the final battle between the two clubs, and despite the chilly atmosphere, they were treated to an exciting battle.

Atkins Wild.

Atkins occupied the mound for the Crackers in the first three stanzas and Tommie's wildness with four hits by the Reds sandwiched in resulted in five tallies, the Reds getting but two more during the remainder of the game.

Johns proved effective in two of his three innings, while John Gentle, the local boy, held the Reds runless the last three innings he occupied the mound.

Gaspar twirled the first five innings for the Reds. The Crackers were helpless for three innings, but in the fourth and fifth they pounded out five runs. Fromme, who succeeded Gaspar, was even more effective, though he was weakening toward the end.

The Redlegs got ten bingles for seven runs, while the Crackers amassed six tallies on twelve bingles.

Britton Hits Four.

To Arlie Britton belongs the hitting honors of the day. The big pitcher-outfielder again demonstrated conclusively that he has no business trying to pitch. Where he belongs is in the outfield. He garnered four bingles out of five trips to the plate.

Bescher singled to start the game and went to third when O'Dell dropped Bates' fly in deep right, Bates taking second. Hoblitzell was retired, but Marsans walked and Egan poled a sacrifice fly to left, on which Bescher tallied.

Esmond walked in the second. Gaspar was hit by a pitched ball and Bescher hit to Jordan, who relayed to Wolfe at second, but the shortstop failed to touch second and all hands were safe. Atkins cut loose a wild pitch and Bescher tallied, the other runners advancing. Bates walked, filling the bases. Hobby singled and two tallied.

A triple by Esmond, a base on balls to McLean and a single by Gaspar tallied another in the third.

Kerr in Pinch Role.

The Crackers sent home two in the fourth. With two gone Jordan and Britton singled and Wolfe walked. Kerr sent home Jordan and Britton with a single to center field.

In the fifth the Reds got back two tallies. Grant singled and scored on Esmond's double. Esmond advanced on an infield out and counted on Gaspar's second hit.

With one gone Hemphill and Sykes walked in the Crackers' half of the sixth. Jordan beat out an infield hit, filling the bases, and Britton cleaned them with a double to center filed.

Hemphill was hit in the ninth, went to second on Sykes' infield out and tallied on Alperman's double to left field.

RED DOOIN'S PHILLIES HERE FOR GAME WITH CRACKERS

Pilot Charles "Red" Dooin, of the Philadelphia Nationals, and his players will tackle the Crackers at Ponce de Leon today, in the first Saturday game of the season. Being Saturday, the crowd that will attend the game promises to be a good one.

Local attention will center around George "Dody" Paskert, the brilliant outfielder of the Phillies. Dody was formerly a member of the Atlanta team, playing left field. While here he was rated as the greatest outfielder in the Southern League and was sold that season to Cincinnati, by whom he was traded to his present club.

But Paskert will not be the only man who will arouse local interest. The Phillies, by reason of their brilliant showing last season, when they jumped into the lead and threatened to win the pennant in the Lynch organization, only to have Dame Fortune step in and deal out an assortment of cruel blows, are regarded as the "dark horse" in the 1912 campaign.

On the club are Sherwood Magee, the hard-hitting outfielder who gained notoriety by slamming Umpire Finneran; Fred Luderus, the slugging first sacker; John Titus, the fleet outfielder; Mickey Doolan, the sensational shortstop; Otto Knabe, the brilliant second sacker, and a host of others, not to mention Grover Cleveland Alexander, the pitching wonder of the age.

NOTES OF THE GAME

By E. M. CLARY

Well?

How did yesterday's game strike you?

Six to seven is a mighty good little score, even if the Crackers were forced to be content with the small end of it.

Ollie Britton carried the hopes of all Atlantans on his shoulders when he went to bat in the last inning. A single would have made things move in that ball park, but why kick because the toast is scorched a bit? Yesterday's game was quail on toast to the several hundred fans who witnessed it. The quail was done to a turn, and a single in those last minutes would have meant a desert of an extra inning. As it was, the fans were willing to pick their teeth contentedly and pass up their desert.

While everyone was working overtime enjoying the game, one lone man kicked against the ways of an unkind fate. He was the sign painter far out in left field. His strict attention to the duties before him caused comment in the grandstand, for not once did he turn his head to see the game.

"Guess his boss is attending the game," remarked one of the fans, and perhaps he was right.

Hank O'Day umpired. 'Nuf sed.

The way the Crackers belted that ball yesterday may well cause friends of the team to hope for the very highest notch at the end of the season. Twelve hits secured from Hank O'Day's pitchers is a feat well worth commenting upon. The Reds were in fine condition. Every man went after the ball with a mid-season snap and vigor. The pitchers were free in their delivery and hurled gilt-edge ball.

Beginning with the fourth inning, Atlanta braced and played real ball. Until that stage of the game was reached, they were just a "wee bit" off color.

The yell which is bound to make Erskine Brewster famous—"Whee!! He's the best shortstop in the world!!!" (Name or position of player may be altered to suit the occasion).

In the opinion of many who attended yesterday's game, Ollie Britton, while a good pitcher, belongs in left field. If yesterday's performance may be taken as an example of his ability to play there there it comes ("He's the best left fielder in the world!!!"

While we are thinking of good work, let's pause and consider that boy Wolfe. He played short fully as well as did Jimmie Esmond, who held down the warm section for Mister O'Day's collection of beauties. Esmond made one of the two errors of the game, but his game taking of chances and the clever manner in which he made them good more than restored him to favor.

It appears taht Esmond will land his berth with Cincinnati this season. While just recovering from a bad spell, he is all attention to the game, and plays all the time.

Wolfe is a clean-cut youngster who obviously belongs on the Crackers. He fields cleverly, hits the ball as though he knew what he is doing, and best of all, does not back away from the plate. Good plan, Wolfe. Keep standing up to the plate and knock the cover off the ball every chance you get.

Jordan was the first Cracker to hit the ball yesterday. After that nearly everyone found it.

Atkins was wild, and helped the Reds to some extent in scoring their seven runs.

Johns pitched the next three innings for the Crackers, and then Atlanta began to play real ball.

Gentle, the Wesley Memorial church phenom, went in for the last three innings. The expetced did not happen. Pitting any fast boy against the batting eyes of the men who are bound to make a terrible stir in National League circles, struck the fans as foolish. Perhaps it was, but Gentle did not think so. Neither does Hank O'Day, now that he has thought it over. Gentle carried a big league confidence with him when he entered the box, and shot them over as though he meant to tear a hole in the catcher's glove. For two innings he had the Reds guessing, and in the last inning kept his head when it appeared as though they had found him. The team held together, and fielding perfectly, stood by their youngster like old college pals.

WELTERS READY FOR TAP OF GONG

Shaughnessy Battles Perry at Staten's Club Tonight.

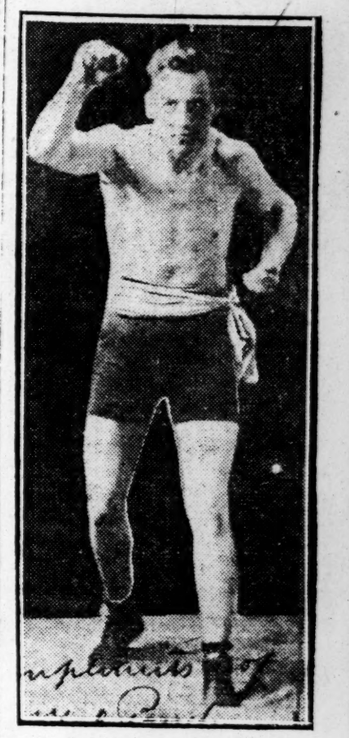

Peter Shaughnessy v. Jimmy Perry, 10 rounds.

Eddie Collins v. Pug Vinson, 6 rounds.

Kid Hughes v. Johnny Strang, 4 rounds.

A battle royal.

This is the card that Harry Staten has lined up for the fight fans of Atlanta tonight and it stacks up as being one of those slap bang affairs from the first of the battle royal until the final round of the main bout. Atlanta fans have expressed themselves as preferring the knockdown dragout kind of bouts and here they have them.

PETE SHAUGHNESSY,
Who battles before Harry Staten's club tonight.

Pete Shaughnessy, the Oklahoma welterweight, has arrived in the city. He was due here Friday morning, but missing his connection at Shreveport, he did not get here until Friday night.

Shaughnessy should give Perry the scrap of his career. He is one of the tough, willing kind of fighters, who mixes it all the way. Two good bouts with Clarence English, one a draw and the other a loss on points, should entitle him to considerable consideration by local fans.

Of Perry little need be said. He has proven his worth here twice. He has not been forced to extend himself before, but with a man like Shaughnessy in the ring with him tonight, Atlanta fans are going to be treated to some mighty pretty work on his points. He will have to give his best to get by with the decision.

The two other bouts of the evening will have plenty of action in them. All four boys are mixers. The battle royal starts the card at 8:30. Tickets on sale at Staten's place.

TOWNE MAKES THREAT TO GIVE UP HIS HOME

New York, March 22.—Former Senator Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota, who is now located in New York and is living on Ocean avenue, a fashionable boulevard in the heart of Brooklyn's most exclusive residence suburb, threatens to quit his home there and locate elsewhere, unless there is an immediate improvement in Brooklyn's police arrangements, which he characterizes as farcical.

Within three months Mr. Towne has been robbed twice. On their first visit the robbers were interrupted but got away with $100 worth of plunder. The second robbery took place while Mr. Towne was out to dinner. The robbers carried off almost every article of silverware in the house and other valuables estimated in all at more than $1,500.

HUGHES-BORAH BILL URGED BY MITCHELL

Washington, March 22.—John Mitchell, Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, and others urged the passage of the Hughes-Borah industrial commission bill before the house committee on labor today.

The bill would provide a federal commission to study the industrial situation in the United States and other countries, and within three years recommend legislation.

"It is the next step necessary in obtaining a just industrial peace," said Mr. Mitchell.

Commissioner Neill said the bill would give the government opportunities in labor disputes which the bureau of labor does not now possess.

ATLANTA'S STRIDES, DAY BY DAY

ALL THE NEWS OF REAL ESTATE AND BUILDING

The committee of the Atlanta Real Estate Men's Association, which was appointed about six weeks ago to look into the matter of establishing a real estate exchange in Atlanta in connection with the association, is now gathering data on the exchanges of other cities and the success with which such exchanges have met. It is the hope of the committee to work out an ideal plan from these reports for the Atlanta exchange.

The idea of an exchange for Atlanta is meeting with popular approval among real estate men, provided a feasible plan can be hit upon, and it is the opinion of members of the committee that such a plan can be worked out. Cliff Ansley, chairman of this committee, is out of town at present, but the committee will have its report in shape for the next meeting of the association.

S. B. Turman, a member of the exchange committee, said Friday that he expected to see the plan go through, and that the fact that a former attempt to establish an exchange here failed would have no effect upon the present plan.

It is the opinion of many that the failure of the former plan will aid in the permanent establishment of the exchange, which is now being planned, both because the shortcomings of the old exchange are already known and can be avoided this time, and because the real estate market of Atlanta is now in better position to support an exchange than ever before.

To the association is largely due this latter condition. Since its permanent establishment there has been more co-operation among the real estate men than has ever been known in the history of Atlanta real estate. Whereas, several years ago there was little, if any co-operation among real estate men, now a split commission is no uncommon thing, and it is becoming rapidly more frequent, thus paving the way for the exchange.

Real Estate Sales.

Forrest & George Adair have sold for Realty Investments to a client No. 257 Peachtree street, an old residence on a lot 100x250 feet, for a consideration of $150,000, or $1,500 a front foot. This was formerly the T. L. Langston home, and is diagonally across the street from the Capital City Club. The old residence is being torn away to make room for a five-story building, three stories of which have already been leased.

H. K. Kicklighter & Co. have sold for George Howard to Mrs. Berta Swift No. 20 Ponce de Leon avenue, a residence on a lot 70x179 feet, adjoining the Georgian Terrace on the east side, for a consideration of $30,000.

Lease Announcements.

H. K. Kicklighter & Co. have leased for Mrs. Berta Swift to C. A. Wood, a three-story brick building, which she will build on the part of the old Adair home lot on East Third street. The term of the lease is twenty years. The consideration is not mentioned. The building will go on a lot 129x200 feet, at a cost of about $40,000. The Georgian Terrace hotel will use the building as a hospital, garage and servants' quarters.

B. M. Grant & Co. have leased to the Stoddard French Dry Cleaning & Dyeing Co., No. 124 Peachtree street, a store and basement at the corner of James street, for a frm of five years. The consideration is withheld.

DETECTIVE BURNS GIVES HIS OPINION OF LAWYERS

Columbus, Ohio, March 22.—Detective William J. Burns was the central figure today at the trial of State Senator Isaac F. Huffman, accused of bribe-taking. This is one case of a series, one having ended in a three years' sentence for Rodney Diegle, sergeant-at-arms of the senate, and another in conviction of State Senator Andrews, in whose case sentence has been deferred. Burns' testimony was devoted chiefly to trying to clear attacks on the reputation of his employee, Detective Smiley, from whom Huffman is alleged to have taken a $200 bribe.

Burns was asked if he had made the following statement before the Lorimer investigating committee in Washington:

"I consider private detectives the biggest lot of blackmailing thieves that ever escaped justice."

"I did, and I say so now," replied Burns, fairly shouting and rising from his seat.

"You swore to it then; will you swear to it now?"

"I will, but I also added to that statement that 'I sometimes included lawyers in the same class, as I could hire certain of them to commit murder.'"

Cedartown, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Judge A. D. Hogg, of this county, has appointed Joe Hopper to serve as county commissioner for the unexpired term of N. A. Hamrick, who resigned recently on account of ill-health.

TROUBLE WITH NEGROES BECAUSE OF ARRESTS

Catherine, Ala., March 22.—Great excitement prevails here and trouble is expected with the negroes.

The trouble grew out of the arrest by officers of four negroes for burglarizing the Southern railway depot and one of the stores. Part of the stolen goods was found in the house of Sandy Campbell and part in the house of Lee Bates, both negroes. Officer Howard, while searching the Bates house, was struck on the head four or five times with a hatchet by Bates, who escaped. The officer is in a serious condition.

A posse was formed and is scouring the surrounding swamps for Bates. Special officers of the Southern railway have taken four of the negroes to Selma and jailed them.

BOY LOSES HIS LIFE IN STOPPING RUNAWAY

Mobile, Ala., March 22.—In a heroic effort to stop a runaway horse and to save two ladies from injury or death, Matthew Neese, an 18-year-old boy residing with his parents on the Old Shell road near Crichton, was instantly killed yesterday afternoon on Dauphin way, near Florida street.

Mrs. Henry S. Tuthill, 104 Everett street, who, with her sister, Mrs. W. S. Moore, occupied the buggy to which the fractious horse was hitched, suffered a fractured elbow and a severe contusion of the knee, but the brave act of young Neese made it possible for them to escape death. Neese was trampled on and instantly killed.

2 KILLED, 30 HURT WHEN CARS CRASH

Crowded Trolleys Collide and Catch Fire From Short Circuits.

Fortville, Ind., March 22.—Two persons were killed and more than thirty injured, many seriously tonight when two crowded cars on the Indiana Union Traction Company's lines collided just west of this place.

The vestibules of both cars were jammed in, crushing the life out of both motormen. Short circuits of heavily charged wires and overturned heaters set fire to the wreckage. Some of the least injured gave attention to the safety of the injured others and, stifled with the odor of seared flesh, attempted to reach the bodies of the two motormen. It was almost impossible to search the smoking compartments, and it is feared other persons may have been burned to death.

Soon after the collision twenty-three persons had been lain on the frozen ground, they rested under overcoats the wraps furnished by companions while waiting for a relief train sent from Anderson.

Officials of the traction line say they cannot account for the accident, as it happened on a straight track. The westbound car, in which many were standing, was running twenty minutes late, but was not under full speed.

LIBERTY IN CHINA FOR CHRISTIANS

President Yuan Promises Freedom of Worship Under New Government.

Boston, Mass., March 22.—Confirmation of a cablegram announcing that Christians are to enjoy liberty and freedom in China under the republic was received today by the American board of commissioners for foreign missions from Rev. Harry S. Martin, the board's agent at Pekin.

Soon after the edict of abdication was announced Mr. Martin wrote the native pastors of the Protestant churches in Pekin, planned a union thanksgiving service and four native preachers, representing Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational missions, called on President Yuan and invited him to be present.

These native preachers were received by Yuan with all the honors accorded foreign diplomats. The president told him that under the new regime they might expect perfect freedom of worship and he intimated that so far as he understood the principles of Christianity they represented were what he was striving for in the new government. He was unable to accept their invitation in person, but he promised to send a representative to carry his message to the Christian church.

In the message President Yuan referred to the difficulties the Christian missionaries had encountered in China. He said that for the first time in Chinese history a precedent for religious liberty had been established.

Trouble at Kwang Si.

Hong Kong, March 22.—Trouble is brewing among sections of the population in the province of Kwang Si. An outbreak may occur at any moment, according to reports received here.

During the fighting at Swatow the Standard Oil tanks and warehouses were struck frequently by stray bullets. The Standard Oil Company, which has its headquarters here, has put in a claim for 1,000,000 taels (about $700,000) for damage done to this property during the fighting.

The commander of the United States monitor Monterey, when it was reported to him that the American property had been damaged at Swatow, landed a party of men. He informed the leaders of the Chinese troops that he did not wish to dictate to them where they should fight battles between themselves in their own country, but informed them that he was prepared to protect American property.

The Chinese promised him that they would put a stop to the burning and looting.

Guerrilla fighting is still proceeding at Canton and the vicinity, but vessels can now proceed along the back reaches of the river in comparative safety.

FUNDS ARE NEEDED FOR POOR FAMILY

negro near her home and the Morris home next door.

Child Goes to Mother.

While Mrs. Morris was talking the three older children on the disordered bed awoke and sat up, looking toward their mother. The light from the fireplace warmed their white little faces, played on the gay bedquilts, on the center table, where a bottle, a plate of cold meat and a loaf of bread stood, and on the opposite wall showed clearly a map of the Holy Land, with Hebrew lettering. All the other rooms of the cottage were empty and dark. Suddenly Sarah, the 5-year-old, climbed down from the bed and went to her mother's side. She looked up into her face and said:

"If I knew who put my papa in black box I would kill him."

"That would not help mamma," said Bessie, aged 9. "We've got to work for her now papa is dead."

There was a brief silence, which was broken presently by two sounds. The first, like a peal of abruptly shrill laughter from out the night, was the strains of "Alexander's Ragtime Band" on a cracked piano down the street; the second, when the joyous noise had ended, was a cry from the bed. The 2-year-old Ida had awakened, and reaching out her tiny hands, had failed to find her mother near her. Mrs. Morris rose and took the little one in her arms, and holding her before the smouldering fire, crooned brokenly a lullaby learned in far-away Minsk, Russian Poland, whence she and her husband came some nine years ago.

Her Neighbors Come.

Footsteps sounded outside, and three men, a woman and a solemn-faced boy entered the room. They were neighbors of Mrs. Morris. Since her bereavement she has been alone not more than ten minutes at a time, the people living around her, all poor and without anything to offer beyond sympathy, a little food, and their services should she move, have offered freely of these. They say, too, that she is afraid to stay alone in the house. She will not enter the chamber where he lay on the floor in the candle-lit dark.

"We are going to find rooms for her," said one young fellow. "Working people like us can't take time off to hunt till Saturday afternoon or Sunday, but we'll find them then. For this house she must pay $18.50 the month, but we will get two roms for $8."

"With people who will be kind with her," put in another man. "That, too, is what she needs."

"Have you any relatives in this country?" Mrs. Morris was asked.

"My husband has a brother in Memphis, but he has a family and can't do anything for us. And I have a sister there, but she's poor, too."

"You want to see the rest of the house?" asked one of the neighbors of The Constitution reporter. He led the way immediately into the next room, a bare, clammy place, and then into the kitchen. On the other side of the house was the room where Morris lay till he was carried away in "the black box." He hesitated before the door.

Place Absolutely Bare.

"Go on in and show the gentleman," said a younger fellow than the guide. "Aaron is gone now." The door swung open and a moment later a bluish gas flame lit up the absolutely bare place.

"I never saw anybody cry like her when they took him out," said the young man who had spoken before. "Her husband, only 30 years old and a good-looking man, and last night he was sitting in the rocking chair on the porch," he said in his uncertain English.

In the front room all the children had left the bed and stood around their mother, except the baby, who had fallen asleep against her breast. The neighbors, acting the part of Chorus as in the old plays, began once more to explain the tragedy. Mrs. Morris listened to them dully, and when they were silent, looked up with tears in her dark eyes.

"I haven't anything and have nobody to help me," she said simply. "He was so glad—my husband was—to have for us a home to come to. Sometimes it seems to me that it never happened—and then I know it has. He's gone, and we're left here."

Atlantans Aid Family.

"Deserving Family," Says Mrs. Felder.

Mrs. Thomas B. Felder last night subscribed $5 to the fund being raised for the widow and her children. "It is a deserving family," said Mrs. Felder, "and Atlanta should help to provide for the mother and children."

A number of citizens of Atlanta, desirous to help the unfortunate family under the shocking blow that has fallen on them through the chivalrous act of the head of the home, have notified The Constitution of their intention to subscribe to a relief fund. Following is a list of the contributions so far received:

The Constitution, $10; Mrs. Thomas B. Felder, $5; James Holliday, $5; M. Fordon, $5; Nathan F. Wolfe, $5; Leopold Haas, $5; David Golden, $5; Isidore Springer, $2; Mrs. I. Springer, $2; Philip Eslon, $3; J. Saul, $2. Total $44.

The Constitution will gladly receive all contributions.

Primary on May 1.

Lyerly, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—At a meeting at the courthouse at Summerville, the Chattooga county democratic executive committee fixed May 1 as the date for a primary for the various county offices. Offices of the county subject to the primary are: Sheriff, clerk superior court, treasurer, tax collector, tax receiver, ordinary, coroner, three county commissioners, county surveyor and one executive committeeman from each district. The primary was called in accordance with the state committee, and will be at the same time of the presidential primary.

Farmers at Work.

Washington, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—A whole week of fair weather, the first in nearly three months, has infused new life into the farming interests of Wilkes county. During the week Washington has received an average of 100 bales of cotton per day, while the cotton wagons have carried out an average of 500 tons of fertilizers to be used in this year's farming operations. It is estimated that the tonnage in Wilkes will be cut about 300 tons. The first plowing of the year was begun today.

Ready for Inspection.

Cedartown, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—The Cedartown Rifles, Company G Fifth infantry, are busily engaged making preparations for the annual inspection which will be held April 1. The company is under the command of Captain W. H. Trawick and has always made a fine record in former inspections.

Favor Rock Hill Plan.

Cedartown, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Numbers of progressive farmers of Polk county are heartily in accord with the Rock Hill plan of reducing the acreage of cotton, and many of them have stated just how many acres they planted last year and how many they will plant this season, and it shows a marked decrease.

Odd Fellows' Meeting.

Cedartown, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—An excellent program has been arranged for the division meeting of Odd Fellows, which meets at Cave Spring, Ga., March 28 and 29. The people of that city have made arrangements for a great meeting, and the attendance will be large.

Albany Elks Elect.

Albany, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Under a special grand lodge dispensation, Albany lodge, No. 713, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Wednesday night elected the following officers for the ensuing year: R. L. Jones, exalted ruler; F. H. Bates, leading knight; Dr. C. W. Walker, loyal knight; F. T. Newell, lecturing knight; R. L. Kearsey, secretary; W. C. Scovill, treasurer; A. C. Cox, tyler; Cruger Westbrook, trustee; J. H. Mock, grand lodge representative.

given much of the credit for the reported federal success.

The report of the battle given out by the government officials here, the only account of which reached the city during the day, stated that the routed rebels fled toward Jiminez.

General Aubert, in possession of the battlefield, devoted the afternoon in caring for the dead and wounded; but will resume the northward march at once upon being joined by General Tellez, who is hastening to him with strong reinforcements of artillery.

Heavy losses are said to have been experienced on both sides, but no figures have been given.

Federal officials here anticipate another engagement and another success at Jiminez within the next forty-eight hours.

MANUEL SIERRA APPOINTED AMBASSADOR AT WASHINGTON

Mexico City, March 22.—Manuel Calero y Sierra, minister of foreign relations, will be transferred in the near future to the post of ambassador at Washington. The portfolio of foreign relations which he vacates will be occupied by Pedro Lascaurrain, whose appointment was made today. The change will be effective immediately and it is expected that Dr. Calero will leave for Washington next week. Mr. Lascaurrain is at present president of the city council and was until recently director of the National Law school. He is known as neutral politically and has not previously held any important political post.

Ambassador Gilberto Crespo y Martinez will go from Washington to Vienna as minister to Austro-Hungary.

KNOX LIVINGSTONE, BARISTER, IS DEAD

Bennettsville, S. C., March 21.—Knox Livingstone, president of the South Carolina Bar Association, died at his home here today. He was admitted to the bar in 1869 in his native state, Florida, but has practiced law since 1870 at this place.

HE BIT OFF BABY'S TOE TO SPITE HIS WIFE

Washington, Pa., March 22.—After Paul Siniski, a miner, had bitten off one of his infant child's toes today, he barely escaped lynching at the hands of a mob of his indignant neighbors. Police arrived in time to save Siniski from threatened death.

It was claimed he had attacked his wife and when she appeared to be getting the better of her husband, Siniski caught up his baby and bit off one of the infant's toes.

CLEVER SLEUTHS GATHER EVIDENCE

adelphians acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Grace are of the belief that there would be the first step by the prosecution upon the arrival of Mrs. Grace, and he replied that he did not know. He reiterated that he had put the matter squarely up to Solicitor Hugh Dorsey and intimated that he looked to the county prosecuting officer to take steps to have Mrs. Grace held in Atlanta pending the date of her trial, March 28, before Justice Ridley.

Attorney Hill visited Grace in his ward at St. Joseph's Friday morning, remaining with him just a few minutes. Grace showed him the letter he received from Binghamton, N. Y. The letter was signed "H. Grace" and the writer wanted to know if he was related to the patient. The letter is similar to many that have come to Grace through his attorneys. Some of the correspondents insist that they are related, but they invariably get a negative answer from the lawyers.

"Grace has not discussed the flight of his wife from Atlanta," Attorney Hill resumed. "His condition will not permit a discussion of those things which are likely to excite him. He is very weak and is losing his grip on life almost every day. He has a wonderful amount of reserve vitality, and it is only this element in his makeup that has kept him alive.

Will Not Live Three Weeks.

"The doctors informed me today that they did not believe he would live three weeks longer."

Solicitor Hugh Dorsey stated that the grand jury would probably take no steps in the Grace case, explaining that he believed the most expedient course would be in the preliminary examination before the justice. He said that an indictment would avail little except that it would cause a warrant to be issued upon which Mrs. Grace could be rearrested and held in default of bail.

"I don't see the necessity of such action," he said. "Mrs. Grace has told the newspaper correspondents that she will return to Atlanta, and I am sure she will be here when the preliminary examination is held."

I. C. Clark, one of the bondsmen who is surety on the $7,500 bond signed by Mrs. Grace, stated that he had been assured that she would return to the city. Clark says that he is not a bit worried over the rumors that Mrs. Grace will not return.

"That is the safest bond that I ever signed," Clark remarked when he was asked if he believed Mrs. Grace would flee the United States. "I have the assurance of Mr. Moore that she will be here when the case is called for trial."

Attorney Moore said that he had not received word from his associate, Mr. Braneh, as to the exact time Mrs. Grace would leave Philadelphia.

"I expect that they will be here Sunday," he said.

ORDERS FIFTEEN ROOMS FOR HALF OF FAMILY

Denver, Col., March 22.—In columns of two, fourteen youths, ranging in age from 6 to 16 years, filed into the lobby of a local hotel today. A stout man, who brought up the rear, went to the desk.

"All mine," he said to the clerk, "and there are thirteen more back in Goodland, Kas."

He wrote "Nathan Alexander" on the register.

"Single rooms, and fifteen of them," said Alexander. "I never doubled the boys up yet, and I don't purpose to do it now."

MRS. DAISY OPIE GRACE TRAILED BY DETECTIVES

was a third party, and that she will be revealed at the trial. They say that Mrs. Grace was a very jealous wife, and that the majority of her quarrels with Eugene were on account of other women. However, all believe her innocent and most of them are eager to offer any assistance they might effectively render.

Wants To Be With Mother.

Webster Opie, her blind son, remained away from school all day Friday, staying at his grandmother's home. When his mother started to leave for the city he begged her to let him go. When told he had to stay at home he pleaded tearfully. "Please, mother, and let me go. I don't want to stay away from you. I want to go awful bad—you don't have any idea how bad I want to go."

"Why don't you want to stay, Webbie?" asked Mrs. Grace as she picked him up into her arms, kissing his cheek.

"Just to tell you the truth, mother, I'm afraid you won't come back," and he broke into a sobbing fit, dropping from his mother's arms and running into the adjoining room.

Mrs. Grace was visibly affected by what her son had said. The attachment between the two is most affectionate and it is said that he is discontented at school without his mother.

Consultation of Lawyers.

Mr. Branch spent the larger part of the morning in consultation with Mrs. Grace's Philadelphia legal adviser. He would not talk of what had transpired between them. Mr. Carr, Mrs. Grace's attorney here, is the lawyer who represented her in the sensational diamond scandal some time ago.

Mrs. Grace will spend tonight at her mother's home. The report that she had left the Sixtieth street residence and was stopping at a fashionable hotel uptown, the Collonade, is without foundation, except for the fact she ate her first meal there.

Receipt For Weak Men---Free
Send Name and Address Today--You Can Have It Free and Be Strong and Vigorous.
I have in my possession a prescription for nervous debility, lack of vigor, weakened manhood, that has cured so many worn and nervous men failing memory and lame back, brought on by excesses, unnatural drains, or the follies of youth, right in their own homes—without any additional help or medicine—that I think every man who wishes to regain his manly power and virility, quickly and quietly, should have a copy. So I have determined to send a copy of the prescription free of charge, in a plain, ordinary sealed envelope to any man who will write me for it. This prescription comes from a physician who has made a special study of men and I am convinced it is the surest-acting combination for the cure of deficient manhood and vigor-failure ever put together.
I think I owe it to my fellow man to send them a copy in confidence so that any man anywhere who is weak and discouraged with repeated failures may stop drugging himself with harmful patent medicines, secure what I believe is the quickest-acting restorative, upbuilding, REJUVENATING remedy ever devised, and so cure himself at home quietly and quickly. Just drop me a line like this: Dr. A. E. Robinson, 3982 Luck Building, Detroit, Mich., and I will send you a copy of this splendid receipt in a plain ordinary sealed envelope free of charge.

CLOSE OF COTTON BARELY STEADY

Fluctuations Irregular Within Narrow Range—Spot Cotton Unchanged.

New York, March 22.—Renewed predictions of unfavorable weather in the south failed to stimulate activity in the cotton market today and fluctuations were irregular within a comparatively narrow range. The close was barely steady, net unchanged to 2 points lower.

The market opened steady at a decline of 1 point to an advance of 2 points, owing to the failure of the early weather report to show as much rain in the south as anticipated and realizing or liquidation by some of yesterday's buyers. The eastern belt forecast, calling for rains tonight and tomorrow, with much lower temperatures, started some buying after the call, however, in connection with rather favorable early advices in the English labor situation, and prices sold up to a net advance of 5 or 6 points on the active months during the middle of the morning. Slight as this rally was, it apparently attracted long cotton, which checked the advance, and the market later turned easier, following less favorable English labor advices.

The close was at practically the lowest point of the day. Judging from the talk around the floor practically the same feeling prevailed in the trade today as yesterday, that leading long interests were taking advantage of moderate advances to reduce their lines, but there was enough support to check the decline within a point or two of last night's closing figures. Private advices from the south were more or less conflicting. Owing to large receipts at the outports, the into-sight figures ran rather over early executions, but spinners' takings for the week were also comparatively large, and it was reported that interior stocks now show a slight decrease compared with last year for the first time in months.

Receipts 72,031 bales, against 46,812 last week and 7,298 last year. Today's receipts at Galveston 9,068, against 3,487 last year; at New Orleans 8,811, against 543 last year, and at Houston 5,572, against 1,878 last year.

Cotton spot closed quiet, unchanged; middling uplands 10.55; do. gulf 10.80; sales, 1,134 bales.

METAL STOCKS MARKET FEATURE

New High Records for Movement Made in Stock Market.

New York, March 22.—The reactionary tendency which overtook yesterday's stock market was partly dispelled today, prices again forging forward and establishing new high records for the movement in a number of important issues. Trading was uncertain at times, however. Undoubtedly there has been extensive realizing during the week by speculators who have pinned their faith to the constructive side, but the effect of these operations has thus far been negligible.

Taking a score or more of the stocks which constitute the real backbone of the list, top prices today were from 3 to 7 points higher than at last week's close. What may be termed the old short interest was probably driven to cover early in the present week, but new lines of stocks have been put out since then. According to board room gossip there has come up another bear faction in the coppers, steel, smelting and some of the standard railway shares. This element has stubbornly opposed the rise of the last few days, and may be expected to continue their tactics unless the present movement gets out of hand. The most logical explanation that can be put forward in connection with the almost uninterrupted improvement is to be found in the fact that stocks were thoroughly liquidated before the present movement began and that they did not decline in the face of many developments of an unfavorable character.

Metal stocks were easily the feature of the day, transactions in Amalgamated Copper exceeding those in United States Steel or any other market leader. Another conspicuous issue was American Smelting, with a rise of over 4 points from the previous day's low. Union Pacific led the railway group. Reading and Steel were relatively backward. Equipment shares were again to the fore and such specialties as American Sugar, International Harvester and American Can preferred resumed their recent activity, the latter at a new high record.

Prices yielded materially in the last hour, except in some of the more obscure issues. Steel's rise was altogether lost and Union Pacific and Reading retained little more than mere fractions of their gains. Final dealings indicated a degree of irregularity and uncertainty resulting doubtless from further realizing, but net gains were numerous.

London's own markets were more cheerful and our securities were strong there under Union Pacific leadership. Further financial troubles in Austro-Hungary were disclosed in a Vienna cable, but the embarrassment was thought to be altogether local.

More financing to meet requirements of home railroads was reported, the Missouri Pacific contemplating an issue of $5,000,000 three-year 5 per cent notes to pay off obligations recently incurred. The coming week probably will witness the consummation of further loans to Germany.

Bonds were irregular with few important movements. Total sales, par value, amounted to $2,404,000. United States 4s and Panama 3s advanced 1-4 per cent on call.

New Orleans Cotton.

New York, March 22.—Spot cotton steady, unchanged; middling, 10⅝; sales on the spot, 950 bales; to arrive, 625; low ordinary, 6 15-16, nominal; ordinary, 7¾, nominal; good ordinary, 9 13-16; strict good ordinary, 9 9-16; low middling, 9⅞; strict low middling, 10¼; middling, 10⅝; strict middling, 10 15-16; good middling, 11 3-16; strict good middling, 11⅜; middling fair, 1 11-16; middling fair to fair, 12 1-16; fair, 12 7-16; receipts, 8,811; stock, 207,810.

Cotton futures opened steady, unchanged to 2 points up, compared with yesterday's close. Cables were slightly better than du eand the weather map was very unfavorable, while reports relating to the English labor situation were decidedly more favorable. After the call these features had some influence on the market and prices gradually rose until at the end of the first half hour of business they were 4 to 7 points over yesterday's final quotations. Trading was small in volume and professional in character.

The market maintained its tendene yto advance until after the middle of the morning when the trading months were 5@7 points up. The weather forecast was bullish as it predicted unsettled and rainy conditions for a large part of the belt, but the report of more cotton up in Texas and rapid planting in the early counties of that state had considerabl eeffect late in the morning with the result that prices fell off until they were only 1 to 2 points up.

At noon, the tone was steady and prices were 2 to 3 points up.

In the afternoon the market was stragnanat. At 2 o'clock prices were 3 to 4 points over yesterday's final quotations.

Cotton futures closed tsteady at a net advance of 1 to 2 points.

Dry Goods.

New York, March 22.—The Algonquin Printing company shortened discounts on staple prints again today. Trade in prints and percale is very active. The jobbers report a fair seasonable business, running materially ahead of a year ago.

Sea Island Cotton.

LATEST REPORTS FROM ALL THE MARKETS

WHEAT FIRMER ON DAMAGE NEWS

Reports of Damage to Crop Offset Effects of Bearish Cables.

Chicago, March 22.—Complaints of extensive crop damage in late seeded soft winter wheat east of the Missouri river rallied the market today from the effects of bearish cables. The close was firm, with prices varying from ¼@⅜ off to ⅛ advance. Corn scored a net gain of ¼@⅜ to ⅜@½, and oats a rise of ¼ to ⅝. Hog products finished within a trifle either way from last night.

Strength in wheat developed late in the day. The easier feeling at the outset followed a break at Budapest, due to an unexpected increase in Argentine shipments, the week forwardings being the largest in over a year. Visible supplies at La Plata ports had also become much more bulky than had been looked for. The movement of wheat northwest of Chicago, however, was said to have shown signs of gradually growing less, and this fact encouraged support. Southwest markets, too, were reducing stocks by liberal selling to country mills. A timely bulge in corn afforded help also toward giving the market a lift. It was feared that the reports of winter killing would prove only too serious, which principally turned the wheat pit to the buying side as the session approached an end. A St. Louis authority made the outlook in this respect decidedly bullish. Largely as a result, the May option, which, between the opening and the closing fluctuated from $1.01⅜ to $1.02¼, wound up firm at $1.02@1.02⅛, a gain of ⅛c net.

A flurry among May shorts at St. Louis formed the basis of the upturn in corn. Speculators of the heavy caliber sort seized the chance here and forced the crowd of pit traders to rush for cover. Receipts were light in all directions and there were some rather wild stories of fancy prices south and southwest for feeding and manufacturing. Corn in Texas was said to be selling at $1.00 a bushel. In Chicago the May option ranged from 70⅝ to 71⅞, closing steady at 71⅝, an advance of ⅜@½ above last night's. Cash grades were firm. No. 2 yellow was quoted at 69¾@70c for car lots.

Unsettled weather that was predicted, and that would further retard the opening of spring work, made the oats market sympathize with corn. Business, though, was only of fair volume. Upper and lower levels touched for May were 53⅜@53½ and 52⅝, with last sales ⅝ up at 53⅜.

Selling by packers nullified the tendency of provisions to rise, owing to small arrivals of hogs and because of the strength of grain. When the last gong struck the market was practically at the same point as twenty-four hours before.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

New York, March 22.—The deadlock in the market continues, with a waiting interest and consequent dull business. Cables were fair, but the indisposition to take the initiative is marked. The weather forecast is uncertain, with temporarily conditions more settled. While there was some small foreign buying the uncertainty of the English strike is disconcerting. In parts of the south there is an active spot demand, and interior shipments are well ahead of receipts for the week. In goods, firmness and activity are notable in some departments. Spots generally are steady. Locally, the market is narrow moving easily to the impulse of selling or buying, with a tendency to lower prices on the lack of speculative support.

HESTER'S WEEKLY COTTON STATEMENT

New Orleans, March 22.—Secretary Hester's weekly New Orleans cotton exchange statement, issued before the close of business today, shows an increase in the movement into sight compared with the seven days ending this date last year in round figures 135,000, an increase over the same days year before last of 129,000 and an increase over the same time in 1909 of 78,000.

For the 22 days of March the totals show an increase over last year of 505,000, an increase over the same period year before last of 407,000 and an increase over the same time in 1909 of 268,000.

For the 204 days of the season that have elapsed the aggregate is ahead of the 204 days of last year 2,964,000, ahead of the same days year before last 4,794,000 and ahead of 1909 by 2,006,000.

The amount brought into sight during the past week has been 242,250 bales, against 107,131 for the seven days ending this date last year, 113,131 year before last and 164,216 same time in 1909, and for the 22 days of March it has been 839,545, against 334,280 last year, 352,002 year before last and 571,802 same time in 1909.

The movement since September 1 shows receipts at all United States ports 10,689,580, against 7,925,999 last year, 6,292,571 year before last and 8,561,364 same time in 1909. Overland across the Mississippi, Ohio and Potomac rivers to northern mills and Canada 793,179, against 793,695 last year, 650,406 year before last and 1,013,938 same time in 1909; interior stocks in excess of those held at the close of the commercial year 399,511, against 405,719 last year, 440,401 year before last and 549,663 same time in 1909; southern milks' takings 1,867,000, against 1,658,104 last year, 1,571,615 year before last and 1,618,270 same time in 1909.

These make the total movement for the 204 days of the season from September 1 to date 13,749,270, against 10,784,787 last year, 8,954,993 year before last and 11,743,235 same time in 1909.

Foreign exports for the week have been 233,362, against 108,151 last year, making the total thus far for the season 8,793,360, against 6,546,399 last year, an increase of 2,246,961.

Northern mills' takings and Canada during the past 7 days show an increase of 22,725 as compared with the corresponding period last year, and their total takings since September 1 have increased 51,845. The total takings of American mills, north, south and Canada, thus far for the season have been 3,740,319, against 3,477,751 last year. These include 1,852,684 by northern spinners, against 1,800,839.

Stocks at the seaboard and the twenty-nine leading southern interior centers have decreased during the week 100,387 bales, against a decrease during the corresponding period last season of 77,579, and are now 495,494 larger than at this date in 1911.

Including stocks left over at ports and interior towns from the last crop and the number of bales brought into sight thus far from the new crop, the supply to date is 14,036,247, against 11,132,749 for the same period last year.

Hester's World's Visible Supply.

New Orleans, March 22.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton, made up from special cable and telegraphic advices, compares the figures of this week with last week, last year and the year before. It shows a decrease for the week just closed of 113,333, against a decrease of 178,966 last year, and a decrease of 24,417 year before last.

The total visible is 5,733,742, against 5,847,075 last week, 4,305,906 last year, and 4,246,190 year before last. Of this the total of American cotton is 4,530,742, against 4,639,075 last week, 3,159,906 last year, and 2,900,190 year before last, and of all other kinds, including Egypt, Brazil, India, etc., 1,203,000, against 1,208,000 last week, 1,149,000 last year, and 1,346,000 year before last.

The total world's visible supply of cotton as above shows a decrease compared with last week of 413,333, an increase compared with last year of 1,424,836, and an increase compared with year before last of 1,487,552.

Of the world's visible supply of cotton as above, there is now afloat and held in Great Britain and continental Europe 3,328,000, against 2,528,000 last year and 2,265,000 year before last; in Egypt 250,000, against 225,000 last year and 152,000 year before last; in India 652,000, against 546,000 last year and 800,000 year before last; and in the United States 1,54,000, against 1,010,000 last year and 1,029,000 year before last.

Taking of American Cotton by Spinners

New Orleans, March 22.—Secretary Hester gives the taking of American cotton by spinners throughout the world as follows, in round numbers:

This week 350,000 this year, against 311,000 last year and 141,000 year before last.

Total since September 1 this year 10,018,000, against 8,407,000 last year and 7,527,000 the year before.

Of this, northern spinners and Canada took 1,853,000 bales this year, against 1,801,000 last year and 1,711,000 the year before; southern spinners 1,888,000, against 1,677,000 last year and 1,609,000 the year before; and foreign spinners 6,277,000, against 4,929,000 last year and 4,207,000 the year before.

COTTON THE PAST WEEK; REVIEW OF THE MARKET

New York, March 22.—Prices have declined somewhat, but the range has been irregular. Conflicting reports about the English coal strike partly explain this. Then, though the weather was better at first, it became worse later on, then improved and then became bad again. Spot interests at times have sold the old crop. New Orleans, Memphis, Philadelphia and Liverpool interests and the Waldorf-Astoria element have been sellers. Some southern hedge selling has been noticed. Texas reports, in some cases, point to a very large acreage, and in the extreme southwestern part of that state is said to be up to good stands. The government census report on ginning put the total at 16,050,000 bales, including linters, which was somewhat larger than many had expected and caused selling for a time. Some say this points to a larger crop than generally mentioned. Wall street houses have sold more or less. The southern soil has better "season" in it than for many years past. Sales of fertilizers are said to be increasing. Liverpool spot sales have, as a rule, been small and on Thursday fell to 5,000 bales. Lately the market has "bulled" rather hard. That seemed to many to indicate the existence of the rather burdensome long interest. However, there are influential people who firmly believe that the general situation is bullish. They think it highly improbable that another big crop can be raised this year because of the lateness of the season. Crop preparations in some parts of the belt are said to be some three to five weeks late or even more. Interior stocks are rapidly decreasing. In some parts of the belt they are said to be 20 to 40 per cent smaller than a year ago. Spot markets are generally firm, and in many cases a good demand is reported. The dry goods trade continues to improve. Manchester is active and strong. Spinners' takings are large. The closing was dull, however, with everybody awaiting new developments.

WEEK'S TRADE REVIEWED.

What Commercial Agencies Say About Business.

New York, March 22.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say that the tendency in the industries and trades is toward a broader distribution. The increased activity is in spite of the slow breaking up of a winter of unusual severity, of pending controversies abroad and at home, including, as they do, the still unsettled coal strike in England, and the disagreement between coal operators and miners in this country. Other labor troubles, however, are less disturbing. The Lawrence strike is virtually over, while advances of wages of 5 to 10 per cent in the cotton goods trade indicate the betterment in that direction. It is significant that the reports from the west now reflect the improved business sentiment, and this, notwithstanding that weather conditions are still generally unfavorable for distribution of merchandise.

Efforts to advance prices of iron and steel are meeting with some success. Pig iron is slightly firmer, and there is some strengthening in steel bars, plates and shapes. With the approach of spring and the resumption of building, structural material is more active and fabricating shops are fairly busy. Prospective business foots up to over 100,000 tons, and the erecting of the new terminal at Detroit will call for a large tonnage. The steel car plants could handle more business and railroad orders are still disappointing. Bessemer pig iron is firmer. Demand for tin plate has broadened moderately, but sheets are shaded and new business is much less than capacity.

The dry goods markets continue very firm, and, with a broadening trade, prices generally display an advancing tendency. Prints and print cloths continue very active, and standard prints are to be advanced to 5 cents per yard, while regular print cloths are now quoted at 3¾ cents. Ginghams are in brisk request, and some lines of these and of canton flannels are held at value on future delivery. In woolens some of the best selling lines are being eagerly sought, but mills are unable to increase their deliveries.

Advances in some lines of men's fall wear have been made by certain factors, and one large producer has advanced all of its staple and semi-staple worsteds 5 cents a yard. The large staple dress goods mills have an abundance of orders, and jobers are doing a etter house trade. Cotton yarns are very firm. There is a moderate business moving in silks for spring.

Leather is very strong and higher. Hides are firm.

Imports and Exports.

New York, March 22.—Imports of merchandise and dry goods at the port of New York for the week ending March 16 were valued at $16,735,715. Imports of specie for this port for the week ending today were $223,753 silver and $511,580 gold.

Exports, $979,440 silver and $1,675,200 gold.

Sugar and Molasses.

New York, March 22.—Raw sugar easy; Muscovado, 89 test, 3.92; centrifugal, 96 test, 4.42; molasses, 89 test, 3.67. Refined quiet. Molasses steady.

Coffee.

New York, March 22.—The market for coffee futures opened irregular with March weak at a decline of 13 points, April 3 points lower and other months steady at an advance of 10 points, in response to higher European cables. The weakness in the near positions was attributed to the lashance of March notices by leading roasters, amounting to about 10,000 bags, but there was a good demand for March at the decline, attributed partly to hanking interests, and the entire market firmed up shortly after the opening on bull support, European buying and covering of shorts. The close was firm at a net advance of from 5 to 14 points. Sales 116,000 bags.

Havre was ¼ to ⅜ franc higher. Hamburg was ¼@½ pfennig higher. Rio unchanged at 8$500; Santos unchanged; fours 8$550; sevens 7$700.

Receipts at the two Brazilian ports 22,000, against 13,000 last year. Jundiahy receipts 5,000, against 2,700 last year.

Rain was reported in Sao Paulo.

Today's special Santos cable reported fours unchanged and Sao Paulo receipts of 12,000, against 13,000 the previous day.

New York warehouse deliveries yesterday 6,153 against 3,001 last year.

CONVICT INVOKES HABEAS CORPUS

J. Wesley Glasgow Seeks to Escape From Federal Prison.

J. Wesley Glasgow, now serving a fifteen months term in the Atlanta federal prison, having been sent up from Wilmington, Del., is now seeking his freedom through Judge Newman, of the United States court, by the habeas corpus route.

Glasgow's petition was brought to Judge Newman's attention in open court yesterday morning by Judge John C. Foy, a leading attorney of Delaware, who represented Glasgow when he was convicted and sentence was passed upon him by Judge Bradford, of the federal district court in that state. The proceedings are in the form of a habeas corpus writ against William H. Moyer, warden of the federal penitentiary.

Glasgow was charged with sending through the mail books interdicted by the postal laws, the charge being made that the publications were obscene. The exhibits carried full pages of Wilmington newspapers describing scenes at whipping posts in Delaware where flogging a prisoner is a form of punishment to show that brutal methods are used in court judgments in that state.

Other exhibits attempt to show that his sentence was too severe, if any sentence could have been right within itself. In the batch of papers were affidavits that the convict had not been allowed to confer with his attorney; that everything he had was taken from him upon his arrest—even the clothing he was wearing being replaced by a prison garb at the workhouse in which he was confined. Exhibits also declare that the books which Glasgow was selling were not of the character alleged by the government, but that they were of a high classic order to which an army surgeon was willing to testify had the presiding judge not refused to hear him.

Judge Newman disposed temporarily of the matter by directing the convict's attorney and the district attorney's office to submit in writing to him for consideration their respective contentions with the facts and laws obtaining.

In the meantime Glasgow is serving out a fifteen months' sentence, which, by directions of Judge Bradford, began January 6, 1912, with a fine of $500.

PERSISTANT HOBOES ON TRAIN AT DALTON

Dalton, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—A band of determined "hoboes" caused considerable excitement and an unlimited amount of trouble to the crew of a passenger train here last night. They had been chased away from the train almost at every station, but upon reaching the next one, would be found "roosting" between the coaches again. The train stopped at Dalton, and the hoboes were dislodged, the train started, back on went the hoboes, stopped again, the porter gave a few yells like a wild Indian, and off went the same old hoboes, hiding in the dark until the train started again, which it soon did, and, of course, they got back on again. For the third time the engineer stopped the train, and this time officers arrested one of the hoboes, and the others disappeared further up the track, and probably caught the train again.

BOOKS TO CLOSE IN ELEVEN DAYS

Voters Must Register by April 2 to Be Eligible to Vote.

That a warm political race for county offices is on in Fulton county most persons do not know, in spite of the fact that the primary takes place on May 1, and that the registration lists close on April 2 at 12 o'clock midnight. The county officers who are offering for re-election and others who are offering for the first time will be the first to serve under the salary system, as heretofore many of the officials of Fulton county have been paid by the fee system.

It is said that it will take two years for the salary plan to adjust itself, as the fees of next year will go to officials for work done this year and the salaries must be paid from some other source of income. When the two years are up the fees will net the county treasury much more than the salaries paid out. The salary system will pay the officials from $5,000 down.

The registration lists, which close on April 2, not only make the registered man eligible for the county and state primary as well as the primary for Georgia's choice for a democratic nominee for president, but also make the man who has not registered by that time ineligible for any county or state election in 1912.

Both the registration headquarters in the tax collector's office and the branch registration office at Govan's cigar store on Peachtree street have been and are decidedly busy. But eleven more days remain in which to register.

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE CLOSES AT DEMOREST

Demorest, Ga., March 22.—(Special.) The last itinerant agricultural school here for this year began here on March 18, and continued until last night. Able and interesting lectures were delivered by the following instructors: Professor Firor, on "Plant Physiology;" Professor Turlington, on "Plowing and Fertilizing;" Miss Parrish, on "Industrial Education for Girls;" Miss Creswell, "Fruit and Vegetable Canning;" Professor Hart, "Raising and Care of Farm Animals;" Professor Campbell, "Boys' Corn Clubs;" Professor Burson, "Veterinary Work." This is the nineteenth school held this year in the state, and was pronounced by those in charge of it far the most satisfactory, with the largest attendance, and greatest interest manifested of any of the series of agricultural schools heretofore held. The students of the Ninth Congressional District Agricultural school attended the lectures in a body, and were the guests of Piedmont college.

Piedmont college has added an agricultural department to its curriculum, with Professor Winslow, an expert agriculturalist, at its head. The college will at once open a demonstration farm here, with the assistance and cooperation of the department of agriculture of the state university. The establishment of this demonstration farm means a new era in scientific farming, and will prove of untold value to the farmers of this section.

AUGUSTA MAKES COTTON RECORD

With Half Million Bales It Is Biggest Inland Market in the East.

Augusta, Ga., March 22.—Augusta last night celebrated the receiving of 500,000 bales of cotton in a single year, by an elaborate banquet, at which 125 persons were seated. From September 1, 1911, to March 14, 1912, this city received a half million bales, breaking all records and stamping this city indisputably as the greatest inland cotton market east of the Mississippi, barring Memphis only. The cotton year extends from August 31 of one year to September 1 of another, and it is probable that 100,000 additional bales will be received between now and next August 31. The banquet was made notable by the presence of such distinguished guests as ex-Senator Chauncey Depew, of New York, and Colonel George Harvey, also of New York.

In his after dinner talk Colonel Harvey, who came over from Aiken, stated that Augusta should build more tourist hotels, as he had tried for three consecutive winters to get reservations here and had failed each time because the hotels were crowded.

Colonel Harvey said that the best way to make money was to gamble on this country. He said he had implicit faith in the future of this country, that is prosperous now despite what the calamity howlers say, and that it will continue to prosper. He said that there were two great evils, one the selfishness of the over-rich and the other the insane desire on the part of some people to get riches away from them.

THOMAS HASTINGS DIES; WAS PIONEER CITIZEN

Thomas Hastings, aged 78 years, one of Atlanta's oldest and best known citizens, died at his residence, 232 Richardson street, yesterday. For a time Mr. Hastings was superintendent of the city stockade, which was the last position he held before his retirement from any active calling. For forty years he had been a resident of Atlanta at the time of his death.

He was born in County Mayo, Ireland, and removed to this country in 1846, when he was 12 years old.

He is survived by his wife, by four sons, T. F., Jack J., R. W. and R. E., and by two daughters, Miss Katherine Hastings and Miss Mamie Hastings.

The funeral will take place this afternoon from the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 3 o'clock. Interment will be at Oakland cemetery.

MAINE HEROES BURIED TODAY

President Taft and Chaplain Chadwick to Deliver Addresses at Arlington.

Washington, March 22.—The remains of heroes recovered from the wrecked battleship Maine in Havana harbor will be laid to rest at Arlington tomorrow.

President Taft and the Rev. Father Chadwick, who was the Maine's chaplain at the time of the explosion, will deliver addresses at the ceremonies.

Immediately at the conclusion of the services an army battery stationed at the Washington monument will begin firing twenty-one-minute guns.

At the graves the services will be conducted by the Rev. Father Chadwick, Chaplain Bayard and the Spanish war veterans. After taps and firing of three volleys of musketry by marines, another army battery at the Arlington cemetery will boom a salute of twenty-one guns.

President Gomez, of Cuba, today cabled the navy department that he had delegated Senor Rivero, the Cuban minister here, to act as his personal representative at the Maine ceremonies tomorrow. Secretary of the Navy Meyer today addressed a special invitation to that official.

The navy department today began the distribution to the officers of the ill-fated ship their personal property, which was taken from the wreck during the recent operations. These included a variety of articles from swords and epaulets to shaving mugs, tooth brushes and pipes.

Among the officers who are to receive these relics are Rear Admiral Charles D. Sigsbee, U. S. N., retired, who was captain of the Maine when she was blown up; Rear Admiral Richard Wainwright, who was the Maine's executive officer; Pay Director Charles M. Ray, and Commanders Holden and Bronson.

CHARGED THAT APACHES ARE NOT WELL TREATED

Washington, March 22.—The house Indian affairs committee was today directed to report within five days on the resolution which calls upon the secretary of war for certain information about the Apache Indians. A proposal has been made to transfer the remnants of Geronimo's band from Fort Sill, Okla., to Arizona.

Representative Stephens, of Texas, was aroused by Representative Palmer's pressure to get action on the resolution. It has been charged that the Apaches were not well treated.

"The Apache Indians live within 50 miles of my home," said Representative Stephens. "They are not prisoners of war, although they are under the surveillance of the military branch of the government. They are good Indians, and I wish we had more of them."

EVERY BACHELOR SHOULD ADOPT BABY, SHE SAYS

St. Louis, March 22.—"Every unmarried man or woman who earns $20 a week or more should adopt a baby. If he or she earns $40 a week, two babies should be adopted," said Dr. Lindsey Wynekoop, of Chicago, at the National Congress of Mothers in session here today.

"Taking care of a child is not a burden," continued Dr. Wynekoop, as she explained to the delegates that although she had three of her own she had adopted a girl.

"It does more to build up the character of a man than anything else. It makes him responsible for a human being, and it probably will save a life.

"The rate of babies placed in institutions is higher than of the babie placed in private homes. One out o two babies placed in institutions dies, and we must stop this waste."

PETITION FOR RECEIVER; $500,000 IS INVOLVED

Macon, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Creditors of the Beach Manufacturing Company, of Baxley, Appling county, today petitioned Judge Speer in the United States court here to appoint a receiver to take charge of the affairs of the company, the assets of which, it is claimed, are $400,000, and the indebtedness about $500,000.

George W. Tiedeman, of Savannah, the Standard Oil Company, of Atlanta, and others started involuntary bankruptcy proceedings against the company, and the receiver was asked for today because it is alleged the company is trying to conceal and misappropriate some of its assets. The Beach company is a large lumber and naval stores concern.

Has "The Army of Clock-Watchers" Had Any Recruits Lately in Your Office?

In all business places where there are two or more employees there is usually found at least one active member of "the army of clock-watchers."

The "soldier of sloth" is far more concerned about how he (or, as is often the case, she) is going to spend the lunch hour, or the evening, than as to how the task at hand is to be done intelligently, efficiently!

Wherever there's a "clock-watcher" there's immediate work for the want ad!

REUNION PARADE FULLY PLANNED

Other Arrangements Also Announced by the Macon Committees.

Macon, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Following the announcement made yesterday by General C. Irvine Walker, commander of the U. C. V., of a revision of the reunion parade plans, the line of march for the parade was given out today and meets with the approval of the local parade committee and assures the veterans that the parade this year will be made one of the biggest pageants of its kind ever held.

The line of march follows: Form at Central City park, march from park on Walnut to Fifth, on Fifth to Mulberry, up north side of Mulberry to New, cross over to south side of Mulberry to First, on First to Cotton avenue, on Cotton avenue to woman's monument and around to First, on First to Cotton avenue, on Cotton avenue to Cherry and thence down to Fourth, where parade will disband.

Sons of Veterans' Sponsors.

Macon, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—The sponsors, maids and chaperons that will represent the United Sons of Confederate Veterans at the reunion here in May have been named by Commander William G. Pritchard, of Charleston, S. C.

Two Macon ladies are included in the list, which follows:

Sponsor-in-Chief—Miss Mary Custis Lee, of Fredericksburg, Va.

Maids of Honor—Miss Constance Hall Jacques, of Macon; Miss Lila Leftwitch Jamison, of Roanoke, Va.; Miss Mary Stewart, of St. Louis, Mo.

Chaperons-in-Chief—Mrs. J. P. Norfleet, of Memphis, Tenn.

Matron of Honor—Mrs. Florence Wadley Coleman, of Macon.

Boys Getting Ready.

Macon, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Four hundred boys from the Macon public schools will meet on Tattnall square Saturday afternoon to receive their first instruction in their duties as reunion scouts. During the coming Confederate reunion it is planned to have five hundred boys from the schools attired in gray uniforms to act as scouts, to escort visitors to their lodging houses, run errands and render first aid to the injured.

THIRTEEN CANDIDATES IN JEFFERSON PRIMARY

Louisville, Ga., March 22.—(Special.) Entries for the Jefferson county primary have closed, and thirteen candidates have qualified as contestants for the various county offices, except of representative, who will be elected in the state primary. Treasurer T. H. Culpepper is not seeking re-election, but J. E. Watkins, M. H. Hopkins and A. B. Jordan are in the race for this important office. Sheriff J. J. Smith is opposed by D. B. Streetman, J. B. Brown and W. W. Hartley. Tax Collector K. P. Walden is opposed by S. L. Peterson, and Tax Receiver Eugene Tanner by Gus A. Rabun. Ordinary C. N. Ramsey and Clerk of the Court W. C. Murphy have no opposition, nor have any of the other officers except those mentioned. The date of the primary is April 10, and the indications now are that the vote will be very light, as little interest is being taken in politics at present. Farming is very badly hindered on account of the much recent rain, and from now on the farmers are going to be very busy every day possible until they have gotten their crops well under way.

TOM HUDSON VOTES IN SCHLEY PRIMARY

Ellaville, Ga., March 22.—(Special.)—Hon. T. G. Hudson, candidate for governor of Georgia, came up from Americus to cast his vote in the primary for county officers, but under the present law he was sent back to Lacross, where the county precincts were when he cast his vote for some of his former constituents.

The nominations in Schley today resulted as follows: For ordinary, E. B. Barrow; for clerk superior court, M. D. Herring; for tax receiver, J. H. Holloway; for tax collector, J. B. Smith; for treasurer, A. M. Casky; for sheriff, W. W. Lumpkin.

The contest for county commissioners resulted in the following being nominated: S. B. Fulford, O. C. Jordan, A. C. Murray, J. B. Williamson and J. S. Womack.

MAN ON DREDGE WORK IS INSTANTLY KILLED

Savannah, Ga., March 22.—Edward Middleton, employed in building a large dredge on the Savannah river, was struck in the head with a piece of timber this afternoon and almost instantly killed. He lived in Savannah.

STATE OF GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—Notice is hereby given that on March 30, 1912, the undersigned will apply to the Judge of the Superior Court of Fulton County, Georgia, at the courthouse in said county, for an order authorizing him, as guardian for L. P. Grant, Jr., to sell, for the purpose of reinvestment, the following property of his said ward, to wit:

First Parcel—Tract or parcel of land in the City of Atlanta, and being a portion of land lot forty-four of the fourteenth district of Fulton County, Georgia, commencing on the eastern side of Oakland Avenue sixty-five feet southwardly from Fair Street and running thence southwardly along the eastern side of Oakland Avenue forty-one feet and extending back eastwardly same width as front one hundred and ninety feet to an alley.

Second Parcel—Tract or parcel of land in the City of Atlanta, being a portion of land lot fifty-three of the fourteenth district of Fulton County, Georgia, described as follows, to wit: Commencing on the western side of Ami Street eighty-five feet northwardly from Glenn Street and running thence northwardly eighty-five feet and extending back westwardly same width as front one hundred and sixty feet to an alley.

The reason for making said application and sale is that the first parcel above described yields only a small income which is insufficient to pay for its maintenance, taxes, repairs and insurance and yield a fair income on its value, and the second parcel above described is vacant property yielding no income to said estate, but is, on the contrary, an expense to said estate.

This notice is given under and pursuant to section 3065 of the Code of Georgia of 1910.

BRYANT M. GRANT,
Guardian for L. P. Grant, Jr.
Tye, Peeples & Jordan, Attorneys.

GEORGIA, FULTON COUNTY—After four weeks' notice pursuant to Section 3065 of the Civil Code, and in compliance with an order of the Superior Court of said county, granted March 1, 1912, a petition will be presented to the Honorable George L. Bell, Judge of the Superior Court, at the courthouse in said county on the 30th day of March, 1912, by me, as guardian of Ruth Lovett and Jack Lovett, asking to be allowed to sell at private sale, for the purpose of reinvestment, the interest of said Ruth Lovett and Jack Lovett in the following real estate (the same being in bad condition of repair, is rapidly deteriorating in value, on account of lack of funds with which to make repairs), to wit:

All that tract or parcel of land lying and being in the City of Atlanta, County of Fulton, commencing on the west side of Haynes Street at a point 79½ feet south of Rhodes Street, thence running in a westerly direction at right angles with Haynes Street one hundred and seventy-five (175) feet to an alley, thence in a southerly direction and parallel with Haynes Street fifty (50) feet, thence in an easterly direction at right angles with Haynes Street one hundred and seventy-five (175) feet to Haynes Street, thence in a straight line north fifty (50) feet to point of beginning; being lot six (6) of the A. J. Brady subdivision, part of land lot 83 of the fourteenth (14th) district of Fulton County, Georgia.

ANNA G. LOVETT,
Guardian of Ruth Lovett and Jack Lovett.
Nathan Coplan, Attorney.
